

No. 436, New Canadian Hymnal.

All for Jesus! all for Jesus!
All my being's ransomed powers;
All my thought, and words, and doings,
All my days, and all my hours.

QUESTIONS FOR SENIOR SCHOLARS.

1. Lending to the Lord, v. 1-5.

From what city did Paul write this letter?
Upon what did he think it unnecessary to write?
What proof of liberality did he have?
What had been the effect of Corinthian zeal?
Why then did he send messengers to Corinth?
Who were these messengers? See chap. 8. 16-19.
What was the special mission of these two?

2. The Lord will repay, v. 6-11.

What is said of sowing and reaping?
How should a Christian give?
What sort of giver does God love?
How can God enrich one for generous giving?
What Scripture does Paul quote?
What prayer does he utter?
To what do God's gifts enrich us?
How is return made to him?
What is our great incentive to Christian liberality. GOLDEN TEXT.

Teachings of the Lesson.

1. Help one another. That is the Christian law of service. Saints should help saints. Evil bands together; virtue should cement good people for all good works.
2. Generous giving is wise giving—to the Lord. He loves "a hilarious giver"—a happy, free-hearted, joyous servant who recognizes his Master's claim.
3. God pays and repays. He is able—what is he not able to do? He gives all good gifts; is not he entitled to a portion of his own?

QUESTIONS FOR INTERMEDIATE SCHOLARS.

1. Lending to the Lord, v. 1-5.

What cause is Paul pleading?
Who had promised this movement?
How long since?
What effect had this movement upon other churches?
How did Paul remind the Church of their duty?
Why did he send the brethren?
What is necessary besides planning good works?
What arrangement did he suggest about the collection?
In what spirit was the collection to be taken?

2. The Lord will repay, v. 6-11.

What causes the difference in the harvest, whether great or small?
What, then, is the law of sowing? Gal. 6. 7.
What is the true charity in reality? Prov. 19. 17.

What is to be its spirit?

What encouragement to liberality is presented?

What is the GOLDEN TEXT?

Practical Teachings.

Where in this lesson are we taught—

1. That the Lord's poor have a claim upon believers?
2. That true charity has its own reward?
3. That what we receive is more than we can ever give?

QUESTIONS FOR YOUNGER SCHOLARS.

What news made Paul very happy?

What did he send to Corinth?

What caused suffering among the Jewish Christians?

What did Paul ask Gentile Christians to do?

What churches had been very generous in giving? The Macedonian churches.

Whom did Paul say might come with him to Corinth?

What did he want the Corinthians to do? To give freely.

Who will reap the best harvests?

How should we give?

Whom does God love?

Who is able to supply all our needs?

What is true giving?

God Loves to See—

A hand that loves to give.

A heart that trusts lovingly.

A mind to keep all God's commands.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. To whom had Paul boasted of Achaia? To them of Macedonia.

2. Why did he send the brethren? Lest his boasting should be in vain.

3. How may we secure a bountiful harvest? By sowing bountifully.

4. How are we exhorted to give? Not grudgingly, or of necessity, but cheerfully.

5. What is our GOLDEN TEXT? "Ye know," etc.

OUR CHURCH CATECHISM.

60. Man was made to know, love, and serve God; have all men done so?

No; "for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God." (Romans iii. 23.)
