TIIE CROSS.

We have conducted our little Journal to the close of the year 1843, and we are about to commence a new rolume with the New lear.

We have long forborne to say anything on the merits or prospects of our unpretending Periodical. We felt the want of such a vehicle of religious instruction, and we were singuine in our expectations of the good which it would effect, and the suecess which it ounht to command. After its publication had, simeitic reaibis. dind is it not a crecommenced, we were often restrained ditable as well as foriunate circumby delicaey from urging its claims on stance in the Catiolics of Halifax that the attention of our fellow Catholics, such a Journal is published in their although we sometimes felt that more zeal minht have been manifested in its But was the Cross wanted in Nova circulation and support throughout the Province.

But noiv that we are commeneing a
(we may be permitted to address a few words to all those who are equally conlecrned with ourselves in the progress of this good work.

The Cress was never undertaken as a literary sieculation, from which any tomperal reward was expected. The best proof of this assertion is the quantitr of raluable matter which has been issued recekly at a sum which could not corer the cost of printiry and paper, unless in the case cí an immense circulation. Tre will hazard a bold assertion on this point-in no part of the Calholic worla has beca published for the lest ;ear a iserity Pajer at so tri:ia.z a smon, and comaining so vast an 'arsonat of intciestins, qiscjul, and inditance as well and City ? Scotia? To such an interiogatory wo should scarcely condescend to reply. A Perigdical like the $\mathrm{C}_{\mathrm{r}}$ nss is wanted
