Tersely Told,

By K. NUCK.

Probably we may soon read interesting Havana "Reports," Santiago "Despatches" and Manilla "Atoms" in the Philatelic Press.

I hope Mr. R. L. Shepard will return safely from the fight and issue a special "Phillipino" edition of the "Omaha Philatelist."

Two "Western Philatelists" announced. Which will win? I'll bet on the one from Winnipeg.

The "Canadian Collector," a magazine of never less than sixteen pages and printed in colors, is announced to appear from Berlin next September. That will be three stamp papers for Berlin. Whew!

The first Omaha stamp to arrive in Berlin was on a letter from Mr. C. Bailey addressed to Starnaman Bros. It was the 2c value and makes a very pleasing appearance. What would our U. S. friends say if Canada issued a special issue of stamps for Canada's Great Industrial Exposition at Toronto next September?

Mr. Fred Filsinger, a popular Waterloo stampite, is employed with the Waterloo Mutual Fire Insurance Co., Waterloo, Ont.

Mr. J. Alex Nafe, a former philatelist of Preston, Ont., who has been attending Valentine's School of Telegraphy at Janesville, Wis., has left for Colorado.
