

helm of state, independent as to means, and above party strife ; men of pure and unsullied honour, not party or party men, alive to every chance of turning a penny, be it honestly come by or otherwise, then may we hope for some devotion to the subject of sanitary-science, and some legislative enactments which will reduce very considerably our present heavy mortality rates. It is for the very purpose of educating the masses to the importance of these subjects that the publishers have undertaken the issue of these volumes. We give below the scheme proposed :

“ Dr. W. W. Keen has undertaken the supervision of the series as editor, but it will be understood that he is not responsible for the statements or opinions of the individual authors.
