

NO "SUN-DOWN" MEDICAL STUDENTS.—The Sun has made a fitting answer to the following query :

" Will you please inform me if there is a medical school in New York, in which the lectures for the first year are given in the evening or any time after 3 p.m. ? DUFFY."

The Sun's reply is as follows : " Duffy, you and dozens of other ' would-be ' doctors think you can study medicine in the happy-go-lucky way the law-pills study law—lectures in the afternoon, office work in the morning. You must give up that idea at once. Medicine requires twenty-five hours out of twenty-four, and more on Sundays and holidays. The lectures in every medical school are given when the professors and lecturers can find time for them. They're given in the morning, and in the afternoon, and in the evening, and some of the private ' quizzes ' begin at 10.30 or 11 p.m., and stop in time to get ready for breakfast, if you dress quickly. Now, Duffy, if you ask because you think medicine is a snap like these afternoon law schools, you'd better keep out of it ; but if you can stand the pace, and ask simply because you are ignorant, why, go ahead, with good health and hard work you may get your license to ' kill, kill, kill, kill, kill. ' "—St. Louis Clinique.
