The Constitutional Question.

SCENE.—Lobby of the House, Ottawa.

1ST. MEMBER.—Your attacks on the Governor-General are scandalous! It's JOHN A. you should blame, for the constitutional rule is that the Governor-General can do no wrong

2ND. MEMBER.—Well, and isn't it another rule of the constitution that JOHN A. can do no wrong?

Do horse-chestnut trees have fine foliage? SHOULD a man "go on a tare" if the tariff raises his spirits?

THE Poll hair Regions.—Customers' heads in a barber's shop.

BECAUSE ice runs at the approach of fire, would you accuse it of coward-ice?

WHEN you read a joke in the Oil City Derrick you see the point derrickly.

THAT joke in GRIP lately about not taking Stock at par, was a first class par-agraph.

IN one case a relapse set in and in the other he sets in real laps. What is the question?

WHEN the Sultan has his favourite wife removed from the room isn't it putting out the "Light of the Haram?"

THE reason tramps get so much bread is probably because they loaf round so much. An aristocratic tramp is one who prefers the upper crust.

IF the tax on snuff is reduced there will be more pinching times than ever.—Ex. There's snuff used now a days goodness nose. If you think it's sneezy thing to get off another joke on this, just try it.

IN a pedestrian match among the poets, the belt would be undoubtedly carried away by GRAY an account of the beauty and symmetry of his I.E.G.—New York Commercial Advertiser. Couldn't BYRON faster?

LORD PALMERSTON once said, speaking of the Turks, "What energy can be expected of a people with no heels to their shoes?" The noble lord was right. Without heels no people can be elevated in the scale of humanity.

BALDNESS!

Neither gasoline, vasoline, carboline, or Allen's, Aver's, or Hall's hair restorers have produced luxuriant hair on bald heads. That great discovery is due to Mr. Winter-corybn, 61 King-street East, (late 132 Church-street), as can be testified to by hundreds of living witnesses in this city and Province. He challenges all the so-called restorers to produce a like result.
