THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

MR. GAVAN DUFFY IN MELECURNE. - At the lestival of the St. Patrick Society in Melbourne, Mr. Gavan Duffy made a long speech, in which he thus adverted to the attachment of the colonists to the old country. He said, "he was rejoiced to meet them at such a festival, because he thought it a wise and generous practice to keep alive the memories that bound men to their native land. It was good for their new country that they should not forget their old one. Perhaps there was not in that whole assembly one man born there was not in that whole assembly one man born in Australia; and there was but a handful among the ninety thousand inhabitants of this city, or the 300,—600 inhabitants of the State, who could claim it as their native soil. However loyal and affectionate citizens they might be of Australia, they could not have felt that first mysterious love a man feels towards his mother country. It did not contain the bones of their fathers, or the graves of their martyrs or heroes, nor the homes of their childhood, nor the altar where they first knelt at prayer, nor the scenes of early friendship or love. A man can have but one mother and one mother country. But men go forth from their first home and marry. They had married Australia, and they would be faithful 'till death doth them part;' but God forbid they should forget their dear mother, Ireland! He would make but an indifferent husband who denied the breast at which he ferent husband who denied the breast at which he was nourished. In a country, where the tender and endearing ties of nationality have not yet spring up, a wise statesman would rejoice to see the same sentiment preserved by the citizens towards their parent State, as one of the best guarantees for a generous and noble life" (cheers).

A PRINTER TARRED AND FEATHERED. J. F. Cummings writes from Topeka, Kansas, to the Chicago Tribune, that on his way to that territory in May last, he was forcibly dragged from the steamboat at Lexington by a mob, led into the woods, questioned as to his principles, and on avowing that he was in favor of making Kansas a free State, he was stripped, and tarred and feathered. He was also severely beaten, and left by the road side. He walked in the following night tifteen miles to a wood yard, where he took the first boat for St. Louis, and made a successful attempt, a few days after, to get to Kansas, where he arrived safe, and still remains.

BATTLE BETWEEN A SNAKE AND WEASEL .- On Saturday a gentleman visiting a spring, in Rochester, heard a slight squealing, and on searching for the cause, saw a black snake and a weasel in a sharp contest. When discovered the snake was coiled around the weasel, giving the animal rather a hard squeeze, but haally the weasel slipped through the snake's coil, and then turned and took the " varmint" by the throat and killed it almost instantly. " Pop goes the weasel."

A country schoolmaster happening to be reading of a curious skin of an elephant, asked one of his pupils if he ever saw an elephant's skin. "Yes, sir, I have," shouted the little six year old. "Where?" asked the teacher, quite amused at the little boy's earnestness. "On the elephant," replied the youngster.

Jenny-Well, Annie, how did you get along with that stupid fool of a lover of yours? Did you succeed in getting rid of him? Annie-Oh, yes, I got rid of him very easily. I married him, and have no lover Taste.-We should always distinguish between taste and fancy. One is a perception of some manifestation of a principle in nature; the other a mere predilection for works of art. One is founded on the soul, as seen through its outward covering; the other contemplates only the exterior dress. True taste is a love of the sublime, the beautiful, and the true. Talent is the ability to give these qualities expression in work of art. The man of genius combines taste and talent, and presents the images of truth, beauty, and sublimity, in poetry, painting, sculpture, music, &c. He does not create the principles, but simply embodies them in images of the material world!

THE DEVIL'S MARKS .- The Belfast Mercury tells a story of a woman in the parish of Rasharkin, who was very fond of paying visits to a certain black bottle, and one day retired to take a nap. On awaking she was horrified to find that her forehead, nose and cheeks; were regularly tatooed with the most fantastic of all imaginary marks in black, red and blue.— Her terror knew no bounds when, after washing with soap, scrubbing with sand, and using every possible effort to remove the signals of disgrace, they retained their position in spite of all her efforts, and their traces are still manifestly visible up to the present day! The victim herself, and every other old woman in the neighborhood, is quite persuaded that the devil had something to do with the affair. Since the date of this very extraordinary event, a greater number of black bottles have been deliberately smashed in the parish of Rasharkin than in any period of time within the memory of "the oldest inhabitant."

M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE.

No remedy ever invented has been so successful as the great worm medicine of Dr. M'Lane. All who have used it have been equally astonished and delighted at its wonderful energy and efficacy. To publish all the testi-monials in its favor would fill volumes; we must therefore content ourselves with a brief abstract of a few of them.

Japhet C. Allen, of Amboy, gave a dose to a child 6 years old, and it brought away 83 worms. He soon after gave another dose to the same child, which brought away 50 more, making 133 worms in about 12 hours.

Andrew Downing, of Cranbury township, Venango county, gave his child one ten-spoonful, and she passed 177 worms. Next morning, on repetition of the dose, she passed 113 more.

Jonathan Houghman, of West Union, Park county, Ia.

Jonathan Houghman, of West Onion, Park County, In.
writes that he is unable to supply the demand, as the people in his neighborhood say, after a trial of the others, that none is equal to Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge.

Messrs. D. & J. W. Colton, of Winchester, Ind. happened last spring to get some of this Vermifuge. After selling a few bottles, the demand became so great for it that their stock was soon exhausted. They state that it has producted the best offert wherever used and is very nonular ed the best effect wherever used, and is very popular among the people.

13 Purchasers will please be careful to ask for DR.

MPLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMITUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his Celebrated Liver. Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

of ringworm. Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most des-

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

Directions for Use.—Adult, one tablespoonful per day.

Children over eight years, dessert spoonful; children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day. Mr. Kennedy gives personal attendance in bad cases of Scrofula.

KENNEDY'S SALT RHEUM OINTMENT, TO BE USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE ME-DICAL DISCOVERY.

For Inflammation and Humor of the Eyes, this gives im-mediate relief; you will apply it on a linen rag when going

For Scald Head, you will cut the hair off the affected part, apply the Ointment freely, and you will see the improvement For Salt Rheum, rub it well in as often as convenient.

For Sate Riceum, rub it well in as often as convenient.

For Scales on an inflamed surface, you will rub it in to your heart's content; it will give you such real comfort that you cannot help wishing well to the inventor.

For Scales: these commence by a thin, acrid fluid oozing through the skin; soon hardening on the surface; in a short time are full of yellow matter; some are on an inflamed surface.

face, some are not; you will apply the Ointment freely, but do not rub it in.

For Sore Legs: this is a common disease, more so than is For Nore Legs: this is a common disease, more so than is generally supposed; the skin turns purple, covered with scales, itches intolerably, sometimes forming running sores; by applying the Ointment, the itching and scales will disappear in a few days, but you must keep on with the Ointment until the skin gets its natural color.

This Ointment agrees with every flesh, and gives immediate relief in every skin disease flesh is heir to.

For Sale by every Druggist in the United States and British Mr. Kennedy takes great pleasure in presenting the readers of the True Witness with the testimony of the Lady Superioress of the St. Vincent Asylum, Boston:—

ST. VINCENT'S ASYLUM, Boston, May 26, 1856.

Mr. Kennedy—Dear Sir—Permit me to return you my most sincere thanks for presenting to the Asylum your most valuable medicine. I have made use of it for scrofula, sore eyes, and for all the humors so prevalent among children of that class so neglected before entering the Asylum; and I have the pleasure of informing you, it has been attended by the most happy effects. I certainly deem your discovery a great blessing to all persons afflicted by scrofula and other humors.

ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY OF IRELAND.

REV. THOMAS WALSH.

THIS Work embraces the Annals of the Irish Church, from the earliest period of Ireland's conversion, to the doctrines of the Holy Roman Catholic and Apostolic faith;—the succession of the Irish Hierarchy to the present time; the labors of Irish Saints and Missionaries in foreign countries;—the Monastic establishments of each County—the plunder of the same; the persecutions of Ireland under the Danes; and finally, those of England; with brief notices of the Bishops and Clergy, who suffered death in defence of the ancient religion.

The Rev. Author will wait in person, and solicit the names of subscribers to the work.

The present will be the only opportunity of procuring the volume, as the stereotype will be transferred to Ireland in a short period, and as it is not given to the trade.
