

Monetary Times

Trade Review and Insurance Chronicle of Canada

VOLUME 58
No. 17

TORONTO, APRIL 27, 1917

ESTABLISHED
1867

Railroad Problem

Analysis of the advantages of government ownership. Bond guarantees and question of control. Elimination of the wastes caused by competition. Equality of treatment to shippers. National defence and government ownership. By W. T. JACKMAN, M.A. Page 5

Bond Market

Weekly register of municipal financing, Page 16. Foreign government bonds in New York, Page 26. United States war loan is the centre of interest. Britain will get the first loan. Issue of short-term notes. How Canada may benefit, Page 32. New war loan Page 12

The Budget

Outline of new business profits taxation, Page 8. Next war loan in early fall, Page 12. Growth of Canadian trade, Page 12. National revenues and debt, Page 34. Reasons why an income tax was not instituted, Page 14

Life Insurance

Policies in force in Canada total $1,424,000,000. Last year $8,600,000 claims were paid. Preliminary returns for 1916, Page 24. Canadian insurance companies' war claims, Page 26. Life insurance an absolute necessity, Page 34

The Week's Topics

Sir Thomas White's budget and the new taxation. Good work of the Kitchener Manufacturers' Association, Page 9. When a first mortgage is something different. Canadian Pacific's bond issue postponed. United States makes its first fraternal loan to the Allies, Page 10

Corporation Finance

Canadian Pacific Railway's growth. Labor shortage mentioned in both Nipissing Mines and Goodwins, Limited, annual returns. National Brick Company's position. Quebec bridge ready in August. Improved traction returns shown by two companies, Page 18

Fire Insurance

The weekly register of fire losses and insurance, Page 44. The insurance of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway's property, Page 30. Suggestions as to fire prevention; an article by C. D. NORTON, Page 22

Trade and Commerce

Greater use of trade acceptances urged. Financial budgets in business. Dominion bankruptcy act, Railway earnings last year, Page 28. Canadian telephone statistics, Page 14. Steel and wooden ships being built here, Page 22

STOCK EXCHANGE TRANSACTIONS—Pages 36, 38, 40.

DIVIDENDS AND NOTICES—Page 42.

EDITORIALS—Pages 9, 10.

REPORTS—Pages 35, 37.

Annual Subscription $3.00 - - Single copy 10 cents