Mercantile Summary.

It's the ability we use, not that we possess, that counts. Shoe blacking isn't worth anything unless the brush is energetically applied.

THE Hobbs Hardware Company asks exemption from the London city council on the old Elliot plough works for bevelling, silvering and plating mirrors. It is proposed to employ twenty-five hands.

THE Ormstown Times notes a steady emigration to Manitoba and the North-West Territories from its district. During the past week eight young men have left, most of them with the intention of settling.

SAYS the Victoria News of the 12th: Receipts of freight at Victoria over the Canadian Pacific during the past few days have been very heavy, in fact as large as ever known in the history of the road.

THE London city council has passed a by-law allowing the selling of Vienna loaves of 1½ pounds weight, and compelling bakers to carry scales in their wagons so that customers can have their bread weighed if they desire it.

MANAGER HOGG, of the branch of the Bank of Montreal at Winnipeg, has been presented with a valuable silverplate service and address from leading merchants of that city on leaving for London, to which place he was recently transferred.

"You gave Hicks a receipt for his bill in full. Did he pay you, Snip?" "Oh, no, sir," replied the tailor, "but he gave me so many novel excuses for not paying that I have staved off my own creditors, and I thought he ought to be rewarded."—Harper's Bazar.
