

the Charter under which a proposal to hold a general conference of the members of the United Nations for the purpose of reviewing the Charter is to be placed on the agenda of the tenth annual session of the General Assembly if such a conference has not been held before that session.

Considering that the examination of such a proposal will require considerable preparation on the part of both the Secretary-General and member states,

Considering that study of the legislative history of the Charter and of the practice followed by the various organs of the United Nations is one of the best methods of acquiring knowledge of the Charter and will greatly facilitate consideration by the tenth annual session of the question of calling a general conference,

Having regard to the memorandum by the Secretary-General in Document A/C.6/343,

Requests the Secretary-General to prepare, publish and circulate among the member states during 1954, or shortly thereafter:

(A) A systematic compilation of the documents of the United Nations conference on international organization not yet published;

(B) A complete index of the documents of that conference on the lines envisaged in part II and part III C of the memorandum by the Secretary-General;

(C) A repertory of the practice of United Nations organs appropriately indexed."
