

ARTICLE XII

1. The supplier Party shall have the right in the event of:

- (a) detonation by the recipient Party of a nuclear explosive device; or
- (b) determination in accordance with paragraph C of Article XII of the Statute of the Agency, that there has been non-compliance with, or repudiation of, a relevant safeguards agreement concluded with the Agency, by the recipient Party; to suspend or cancel further transfers of nuclear material, material, equipment and technology and to require the return of items subject to this Agreement, subject to payment therefor at prices then current.

2. In the event of non-compliance by the recipient Party with the provisions of this Agreement, the supplier Party shall have the right to suspend or cancel further transfers of nuclear material, material, equipment and technology and to require the recipient Party to take corrective steps. If, following consultation between the Parties, such corrective steps are not taken within a reasonable time, the supplier Party shall thereupon have the right to require the return of items subject to this Agreement subject to payment therefor at prices then current.

ARTICLE XIII

Unless otherwise specified at the time of transfer, nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as imposing any responsibility on the Parties with regard to the suitability for any particular use of items supplied pursuant to commercial contracts.

ARTICLE XIV

Any dispute arising out of the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement shall be settled amicably through mutual consultation or negotiation between the two Parties.

ARTICLE XV

1. This Agreement shall enter into force upon the date on which the Parties exchange diplomatic notes informing each other that they have complied with all applicable requirements for its entry into force and shall remain in force for a period of ten years. If neither Party has notified the other Party at least 180 days prior to the expiry of such period, this Agreement shall continue in force thereafter until 180 days after notice of termination has been given by either Party to the other Party.

2. In the event of termination of the present Agreement, the provisions of Article I and III to XIV shall continue in effect so long as any item that was subject to this Agreement remains in existence, except as otherwise agreed between the Parties.
