

United Nations Sanctions:
Policy Options for Canada

Table of Contents

	Page
I. Introduction	1
II. Lessons and Policy Recommendations	3
III. Factors Influencing the Effectiveness of Sanctions	9
1. The Advantages and Challenges of Multilateralism	9
2. Generic Objectives of Sanctions	12
a) Sanctions as punishment
b) Diffuse deterrence and norm-strengthening	13
c) Deterring the target	14
d) Laying the groundwork for the use of force	15
e) Coercion: four 'modes of transmission'
i) Rational Cost-Benefit Analysis	16
ii) Denial of Material Capacity
iii) Attempts to Incite Regime Change	17
iv) Socialization through Normative Argument
3. Issue area under dispute	18
a) Implications for multilateralism
b) Implications for target response	19
4. Target characteristics, target-sender relations, type of sanctions	20
a) Targets vs. Senders: general observations
b) Comprehensive economic sanctions	21
c) Targetted measures	25
i) Freezing assets
ii) Travel bans	26
iii) Diplomatic sanctions	27
iv) Cultural and sporting sanctions	28
v) Arms embargoes
5. Sanctions in context	29