

ARTICLE IVCoordination with regard to related matters

1. Where both Parties' competition authorities are pursuing enforcement activities with regard to related matters, they will consider coordination of their enforcement activities. In such matters, the Parties may invoke such mutual assistance arrangements as may be in force from time to time.

2. In considering whether particular enforcement activities should be coordinated, either in whole or in part, the Parties' competition authorities shall take into account the following factors, among others:

- (a) the effect of such coordination on the ability of both Parties to achieve their respective enforcement objectives;
- (b) the relative abilities of the Parties' competition authorities to obtain information necessary to conduct the enforcement activities;
- (c) the extent to which either Party's competition authority can secure effective relief against the anticompetitive activities involved;
- (d) the possible reduction of cost to the Parties and to the persons subject to enforcement activities; and
- (e) the potential advantages of coordinated remedies to the Parties and to the persons subject to the enforcement activities.

3. In any coordination arrangement, each Party's competition authority shall seek to conduct its enforcement activities consistently with the enforcement objectives of the other Party's competition authority.

4. In the case of concurrent or coordinated enforcement activities, the competition authority of each Party shall consider, upon request by the competition authority of the other Party and where consistent with the requested Party's enforcement interests, ascertaining whether persons that have provided confidential information in connection with those enforcement activities will consent to the sharing of such information between the Parties' competition authorities.

5. Either Party's competition authority may at any time notify the other Party's competition authority that it intends to limit or terminate coordinated enforcement and pursue its enforcement activities independently and subject to the other provisions of this Agreement.
