

- (d) failure by the airline to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed under this Agreement.
2. The rights enumerated in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be exercised only after consultations between the aeronautical authorities pursuant to Article 20 of this Agreement unless:
- (a) action is essential to prevent infringement of the laws and regulations referred to above; or
  - (b) action is required for safety or security purposes in accordance with the provisions of Articles 7 or 8 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6

Application of Laws

1. The laws, regulations and procedures of one Contracting Party relating to the admission to, remaining in, or departure from its territory of aircraft engaged in international air navigation, or to the operation and navigation of such aircraft shall be complied with by the designated airline or airlines of the other Contracting Party on entrance into, departure from and while within that territory.
2. The laws and regulations of one Contracting Party relating to the admission to, remaining in, or departure from its territory of passengers, crew members and cargo including mail (such as regulations relating to entry, clearance, transit, aviation security, immigration, passports, customs and quarantine) shall be complied with by the designated airline or airlines of the other Contracting Party and by or on behalf of such passengers, crew members and cargo including mail, on transit of, admission to, departure from and while within that territory.
3. In the application of such laws and regulations, a Contracting Party shall accord to the designated airline or airlines of the other Contracting Party treatment no less favourable than that accorded, under similar circumstances, to its own or any other airline engaged in similar international air services.
