

Minister Crosbie noted that, in response to continuing representations by Canadian and U.S. industries, a second round of accelerated tariff elimination consultations has been initiated. As previously announced, the deadline for the submission of proposals was March 30, 1990. The government will once again conduct thorough consultations with Canadian industry on all proposals received.

For further information, media representatives should contact:

Media Relations Office
External Affairs and International Trade Canada
(613) 995-1874