OF THE

HOUSE OF COMMONS

OF CANADA

OTTAWA, THURSDAY, 25TH MAY, 1944

PRAYERS.

The Clerk of the House laid upon the Table the Twenty-second Report of the Clerk of Petitions stating that he had examined the following petition presented on the 23rd instant by Mr. Fair, viz:—

Of Sadie Thorley, and approximately 12,500 other citizens of Canada, praying for the abolition of the Soldier Settlement Board; the issuing of cash credits to those now serving in the armed forces; and the inauguration of economic and social reforms, and finds that it does not comply with Standing Order 68 in the following respects:—

1. The petition is addressed to the Government and the Members of Parliament;
2. The petition asks for the expenditure of public money not recommended by the Crown.

For the above reasons this petition should not be received.
