

QUESTIONS.

(Questions answered orally are indicated by asterisks).

LIEUTENANT WILLIAM GIBSON.

Mr. PROULX:

1. Is Lieutenant Wm. Gibson County Registrar in Kingston?
2. Is he drawing salary as a military officer?
3. If so, where is he located?
4. Is he also drawing his salary as Registrar?
5. Could not the duties he is performing for the militia be performed by a returned soldier?

Mr. MEIGHEN:

1. The county registrar is a provincial and not a Dominion official. We have no information.

2. Yes, employed in internment duties.

3. Camp Kapuskasing, Ontario.

4. Answered by No. 1.

5. Lieut. Gibson is acting in the capacity of quartermaster at Camp Kapuskasing, where the duties are not light, there being about 600 prisoners there, divided into two classes, workers and non-workers, in addition to the troops required for guarding same and working parties. The D.O.C. of the district has instructions to employ a returned soldier in Lieut. Gibson's stead as soon as one of the necessary capacity is available.

MR. M. A. McINNIS.

Mr. NEELY:

1. What are the duties of Mr. M. A. McInnis, assistant to Mr. McGrath, Fuel Controller?

2. What is the salary of Mr. McInnis?

3. Has he special qualifications for this class of work?

Sir GEORGE FOSTER:

1. Mr. M. A. McInnis is no longer on the staff of the fuel controller. He was employed for a period of two months on special technical investigation.

2. $200 per month.

3. Yes.

MAJOR LEIGH.

Mr. GAUVREAU:

1. What is Major Leigh's position or duties in military work in the province of Prince Edward Island, and what remuneration does he receive?

2. What is the total amount received by him since the beginning of the war till the present time?

Sir EDWARD KEMP:

1. Officer commanding artillery and infantry depots; $6.50 per diem pay and allowances.

2. $4,163.46.

[Mr. Bradbury.]

MAJOR BARTLETT.

Mr. GAUVREAU:

1. What is Major Bartlett's position or duties in military work in the province of Prince Edward Island, and what remuneration does he receive?

2. What is the total amount received by him since the beginning of the war till the present time?

Sir EDWARD KEMP:

1. Officer in charge of supplies, transport and barracks at Charlottetown, P.E.I.; $4 per diem.

2. $4,809.30.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL S. R. JENKINS.

Mr. GAUVREAU:

1. What salary or remuneration does Dr. S. R. Jenkins, of Charlottetown, P.E.I., receive as Lieut-Colonel, and what are his duties in this connection?

2. How much does Dr. S. R. Jenkins receive for examining recruits, and what is the total amount received by him since the war began till the present time, both in salary and for examining recruits?

3. Has Dr. S. R. Jenkins an orderly? If so, what does said orderly receive, and what is his name?

4. Has Dr. S. R. Jenkins a stenographer or private secretary? If so, what is his or her name, and is the remuneration paid by the Dominion Government?

Sir EDWARD KEMP:

1. $4 per diem; Medical officer in charge of troops, Charlottetown, attending to troops located at Summerside and Souris, also looks after returned soldiers at the Dalton Sanatorium. Lt.-Col. Jenkins also attends all medical boards.

2. Nothing at present for examining recruits. Pay and allowances, $2,486.94; examining recruits in 1915 when not drawing other remuneration, $166.62; total $2,653.56.

3. No.

4. Yes; Miss Nora Jenkins—$2.50 per week while employed, including use of machine.

CAPTAIN R. V. HARRIS.

Mr. PROULX:

1. Has Captain R. V. Harris been attached to Military Headquarters, District No. 6, at Halifax, N.S.?

2. If so, are his services actually needed?

3. What is the nature of the services being performed by Captain Harris, and what pay does he receive?

Sir EDWARD KEMP:

1. Yes.

2. Yes.

3. (a) District casualty officer; (b) pay of rank, $3; field allowance, 75 cents; subsistence, $1.50, $5.25 per diem.