

Right Hon. L. B. Pearson (Prime Minister): Mr. Speaker, the answer to the first part of the question is yes.

The answer to the second part is as follows. The principal substance of the letter from Mr. Buckler comprised a number of specific points concerning pension provisions affecting public servants of other countries, the management of the public service superannuation fund, the relationship between the superannuation scheme and the Canada Pension Plan and between the funds associated with those plans, and my reply was intended to provide clarification on these matters.

EMPLOYMENT SERVICE—DISCRIMINATORY JOB ORDERS

Motion No. 71—Mr. Orlikow:

That an order of the house do issue for copies of any directive issued in the past two years by the National Employment Service or the Department of Labour to its staff directing them to refer discriminatory job orders to appropriate government departments and commissions—federal or provincial—for appropriate action in order to carry out the directives included in the legislation which prohibits the National Employment Service from filling discriminatory job orders.

Hon. J. R. Nicholson (Minister of Labour): Mr. Speaker, I might say that I am informed that there were no such directives issued by the National Employment Service or by the department, and a nil return will have to be the answer.

Mr. Speaker: Is this notice of motion dropped?
