

money orders unacceptable (ii) will the department make representations to have the situation changed?

2. Is the Department aware that the latest incident, as of the date this question was asked, occurred on July 9, 1980?

Mr. Louis Duclos (Secretary of State for External Affairs):

1. The Department of External Affairs can confirm that the United States Embassy in Ottawa does not accept Canadian postal money orders in United States dollars as payment for consular fees.

(a) Not applicable.

(b) (i) It is United States government policy.

(ii) The department will not be making representations to have the situation changed.

2. The U.S. Embassy has advised the department that infrequently instruments of payment are presented that are not accepted. No record is kept of these occasions.

INDIAN CONDITIONS—A SURVEY

Question No. 1,423—Mr. Greenaway:

1. What was the total cost of preparing and publishing the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development's publication Indian Conditions—A Survey, prepared by Mr. R. H. Knox, director general, program support, Indian and Inuit Affairs Program?

2. Were consultants contracted in the preparation of the report and, if so (a) how much was each paid by the department and by any other department or agency (b) what were their names (c) who selected them and by what method?

Hon. C. John Munro (Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development):

1. Salaries (term employees)	$ 35,538.40
Administrative expenses:	56,886.41
Contracts:	154,515.45
Total cost:	246,940.26
2. Yes, consultants were contracted as listed below:
(a) and (b)
W. Badcock	$ 11,813.05
M. Giuliani	21,100.40
J. Nicholson	35,000.00
G. Cassidy	7,620.00
Systems Approach Consultants Ltd.	6,980.00
Systems Approach Consultants Ltd.	30,950.00
Nepean Development Consultants	10,500.00
Aerographics	23,054.00
C.R.O.P. Ltd.	6,795.00
DOE—Canada Land Data Systems	703.00
	$154,515.45

All contracts were paid by the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

(c) Method of selection was as follows:

1. A series of tasks were identified that would require contracting personnel.

2. A short list of names was prepared of suitable individuals based on the recommendations of various components of the Indian Affairs program, including the research and evaluation branches, using criteria including the familiarity with the Indian Affairs Program the experience in the preparation of reports and in the development of government policy, and skills in data analysis and financial analysis.

3. Potential contractors were interviewed.

4. Contracts were agreed based on specific terms of reference identified in relation to each project.

ELDORADO NUCLEAR LTD.—DOMINION BRIDGE CONTRACT

Question No. 1,425—Mr. Cullen:

1. Did Dominion Bridge, when bidding on contracts for construction of F-2 cells through C.E. Lummus for Eldorado Nuclear Limited, have the privilege of conforming, after the close of the bid period, to the conditions of the contract?

2. Were the terms and conditions outlined in the "Scope of Work" submitted by a competitor used as a basis for placing an order with Dominion Bridge?

Hon. Marc Lalonde (Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources): Eldorado Nuclear Limited reports as follows:

1. No. Dominion Bridge was selected after exhaustive analysis of the bid price and technical capability to perform the work in accordance with the specifications and tolerances required in the fabrication of the fluorine cells.

2. No. The "Scope of Work" and in particular the design of the fluorine cells provided by ENL and Lummus Company of Canada Limited was issued to all companies selected to bid on the contract.

CONSTITUENCIES—TOLL CHARGES

Question No. 1,427—Mr. Halliday:

1. How many constituencies require the payment of a toll charge to telephone between any two points within the constituency?

2. How many constituencies lie completely within an urban municipal boundary?

Mr. D. M. Collette (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): 1. The information requested does not come within the administrative responsibility of the government.

2. Ninety-seven electoral districts lie completely within an urban area as defined in section 11 of the Canada Elections Act, which reads as follows: "an incorporated city or town having a population of five thousand or more". A list of the electoral districts involved is attached.

Urban Electoral Districts

Ontario

Burlington
Hamilton East
Hamilton Mountain
Hamilton West
Lincoln
London East
London West
Mississauga North
Mississauga South
Oshawa
Ottawa Centre