

2.

before April 15th, the results to be announced at the May Convocation. Those eligible are undergraduates and graduates proceeding to the Masters Degrees during the present session.

I think that we should get this matter settled at once so that the students may have enough time to write the essays.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.