(i) The expression "plate," when applied to metals, means a plate or sheet more than three-sixteenths of an inch in thickness.

3. The expressions mentioned in section two of "The Customs Act," as amended by section two of "The Customs Amendment Act, 1888," whenever they occur herein, or in any Act relating to the Customs, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meaning assigned to them respectively by the said sections two; and any power conferred upon the Governor in Council by "The Customs Act" to transfer dutiable goods to the list of goods which may be imported free of duty is not hereby abrogated or impaired.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and to the requirements of "The Customs Act," chapter thirty-two of the Revised Statutes, as amended, there shall be levied, collected and paid upon all goods enumerated, or referred to as not enumerated, in Schedule A* to this Act, the several rates of duties of Customs set forth and described in the said Schedule and set opposite to each item respectively or charged thereon as not enumerated, when such goods are imported into Canada or taken out of warehouse for consumption therein.

5. Subject to the same provisions and to the further conditions contained in Schedule B* to this Act, all goods enumerated in the said Schedule B* may be imported into Canada or may be taken out of warehouse for consumption therein, without the payment of any duties of Customs thereon.

6. The importation into Canada of any goods enumerated, described or referred to in Schedule C to this Act, is prohibited; and any such goods if imported shall thereby become forfeited to the Crown, and shall be destroyed; and any person importing any such prohibited goods, or causing or permitting them to be imported, shall for each offence incur a penalty of two hundred dollars.

7. The whole or part of the duties hereby imposed upon fish and other products of the fisheries may be remitted as respects either the United States or Newfoundland, or both, upon proclamation of the Governor in Council, which may

* Schedule A includes all goods on which duty is payable, Schedule B all goods in the free list, but the two arranged by us alphabetically for general convenience.—PUB.
