

of its members, the Honorable Alexander Stewart, C. B., Judge of the Court of Vice Admiralty for this Province and formerly Master of the Rolls.

An able, energetic, and successful advocate, he was no less distinguished as a Judge by the sound leaning, and patient assiduity which he brought to the investigation of truth than by his upright, and impartial administration of the law, and the dignity with which he presided over the Court of Justice.

At this time especially when questions of International law, involving great, and momentous interests may be more likely to arise the loss of one is more deeply deplored whose studies and habits of thought, and calm and dispassionate judgment, so well fitted him for the consideration of such subjects.

He ever sought to sustain the rights and elevate the character of the Bar practising in his Court, and his kindness, and courtesy in his encouragement of the younger members of the profession will ever be held in grateful recollection, while in the fulfillment of the duties of private life he maintained an unblemished reputation.

RESOLVED, that the expression of the feelings both of the Bench and the Bar be duly published, and a copy thereof be transmitted to a Committee consisting of the Honorable Mr. Justice Dodd, the Honorable Attorney General and the Honorable the Solicitor General to the family of the deceased, with an expression of the sincere sympathy of the whole profession in the bereavement they have sustained.

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Bench, and Bar do attend the funeral in a body, and do wear crape for the period of one month."

Such addresses, and resolutions are in many cases mere perfunctory performances, but it may safely be left to those who have pursued these imperfect memoirs to say whether they do not genuinely represent the estimation in which he was deservedly
