SUFFRAGETTE INVADERS MET SOLID WALL OF POLICEMEN MANY WINDOWS WERE BROKEN

Devoted Band of Twenty-One Crusaders Arrested, While Others Were Busily Shattering Plate Glass—Crowd Handled Women Roughly.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—(Can. Press.)—

As a protest against the withdrawal of the franchise bill by the government, the suffragettes resumed their militant tactics tonight. While a despatch, which the chancellor of the exchequer, David Lloyd George, had refused to see until tomorrow morning, was trying to force their way into parliament against an overwhelming force of police and were being placed under arrest for resisting the officers, other bands of women went thru Whitehall breaking the windows of the government offices, and thru Cockspur street, where the great plate glass windows in the establishments of shipping companies were ruthlessly smashed.

The women also visited Oxford, Regent and other streets in the shopping district, where similar damage was done. Later post boxes were attacked, quantities of liquid being poured into them.

In the outlying suburbs, too, the suffragettes took steps to bring the cause before the public by damaging property. Twenty-one women were arrested in the vicinity of the parliament building, but were allowed out on bail after the house rose. Most of the police stations had one or more prisoners, charged with destroying property.

Women Roughly Handled.
The demonstration in Whitehall was not so large as some of those previously held, the force of police and a drizzling rain militating against any great turnout. The wildest excitement prevailed, however, and besides protecting property and arresting the women who engaged in window smashing or refused to move on when ordered, the police had the greatest difficulty in preventing the women from an unruly crowd of youths who gathered and hustled every woman wearing the suffragette colors.

In several cases the women were roughly handled. An attempt to duck four of them in the fountain in Trafalgar square was frustrated by a police posse, which had to ride thru the crowd.

Involving Host Arrested.
The entire detachment of 21 women, who attempted to make their way into the house of commons to interview Chancellor Lloyd George, were arrested. The prisoners included Mrs. Drummond and Sylvia Pankhurst, who marched in front. Before starting on their mission, the delegates listened to addresses by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and other leaders.

Mrs. Pankhurst said that the withdrawal of the franchise bill, including

FORGET REPLIES TO ASSAILANTS WITH VIGOR

Declares Late Government Played Politics in Refusing the Banque Internationale Charter and Is Met by Ex-Premier's Indignant Denial—Challenges Lemieux.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Sir Rodolphe Forget is a hard hitter, and came back this afternoon with considerable vigor in reply to the charges made against him and some of his financial ventures by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux yesterday.

The Montreal financier denounced his journalistic assailants in France and Quebec alike as "jail birds," "dunkards," "morphine eaters," "blackmailers," and "men without respect for the marriage laws." He charged that the attack made upon him was a result of a conspiracy, and declared that a license to do business had been denied for months to La Banque Internationale as a matter of politics by the Laurier Government.

At the last general elections Sir Rodolphe contested and carried the ridings of Charlevoix and Montmorency. In the latter riding his opponent was George Parent, then the sitting member, and son of Hon. S. N. Parent, chairman of the National Transcontinental Railway Commission. According to Sir Rodolphe, Hon. Mr. Parent had promised that the Laurier Government would at once grant a certificate to La Banque Internationale if Sir Rodolphe would withdraw as the candidate for Montmorency.

Challenged by Laurier.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier arose with some heat and declared that Mr. Parent had not been authorized to make any such proposition.

Sir Rodolphe Forget: "I did not say he was authorized."
Sir Wilfrid Laurier: "I do not believe he ever made the statement."
Sir Rodolphe's statement, as a matter of privilege, probably exceeded the usual bounds, and there were frequent protests from the Liberal side of the chamber. These protests were drowned in noisy cheers and cries of "sit down," "take your medicine," from the government benches, and at times there was great disorder.

Sir Rodolphe was once or twice admonished by the speaker, but managed to score two or three points on

EIGHT DOLLARS LIVING WAGE FOR GIRLS

No One Can Live Respectably on Less, Says Mrs. Florence Kelley—Cost of Living Increased by Expensive Wrapping, High Store Rents and Colossal Advertising.

Toronto is indebted to its club for the study of social science for an address on "A Shopping Public and the Wage Earners," given by Mrs. Florence Kelley, in Foresters' Hall last evening. Mrs. Kelley has been for 13 years secretary of the "Consumers' League of the United States, a position for which her 20 years' connection with Jane Addams and Hull House have been a very helpful experience.

Mrs. Plumtree introduced the speaker at last night's meeting, and Mrs. Kelley traced the beginnings of the Consumers' League, which owed its origin to Mrs. Lowell of New York, whose sympathy was roused in the subject by finding a little 11-year-old boy in a hospital, sick almost to death from exhaustion due to the pressure of Christmas shopping in the store in which he served as cash boy. This was 20 years ago. Investigation showed that there was then no law and no standard amongst merchants as to holidays, hours of labor, or methods of delivering goods. For the purpose of getting information and interesting merchants, 1800 letters were sent out

Dead and Injured.
The dead man, George Kozley, was shot twice in the stomach. The injured are: Fritz Becker, shot in the head, dying; Mrs. John Schlan, shot in the arm; Richard Parish, shot in the left leg; Annie Leba, shot in the stomach; Walter Barnett, chief of police of Rankin, head lacerated; Michael Milos, aged 6 months, shot in the left ear; Charles Benson, shot in stomach; Anton Andisk, shot in the breast.

Two deputy sheriffs were shot in the back, and two unknown negroes received bullets in their legs. It developed tonight that the deputies were not employed by the county, but had been appointed by the Rankin authorities, according to Chief of Police Barnett the deputies had no rank outside the mill.

Sheriff Bruff tonight took personal charge of the situation. In a statement the sheriff said the officers were not deputy sheriffs, but were special deputies.

CLIVE H. CARRUTHERS CHOSEN AS TORONTO RHODES SCHOLAR

Announcement was made by the senate of the University of Toronto last night that Clive H. Carruthers, son of Prof. Adam Carruthers, 603 Huron street, Toronto, had been awarded the Rhodes Scholarship.

Clive H. Carruthers is the fifth graduate of Toronto University to receive the scholarship. He is the second boy from Parkdale Collegiate to secure it. Attached to the scholarship is an honorarium of $1500, which is $500 for the first year. This makes it possible for the fortunate student to take up post-graduate work at Oxford University.

Clive H. Carruthers is a son of Prof. Adam Carruthers of the Greek department at Toronto University. He was born in Parkdale in 1891. After attending Queen Victoria School he entered Parkdale Collegiate. In 1908 he registered at Toronto University, and that year took the Edward Blake Scholarship in moderns and classics and the McCaul Scholarship in classics. Last year he won the McCaul gold medal for classics and graduated in 1912. He was president of the University College Classical Association and during 1910 and 1911 was treasurer of the University College Scientific and Literary Society.

He leaves in the fall for Oxford.

RUSSIA READY FOR INVASION?

Big Army Is Reported to Be Mobilizing on Turkish-Armenian Frontier.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—(Can. Press.)—The Constantinople correspondent of The Chronicle learns that the Porte's reply to the powers will express regret that it is impossible to make further concessions.

A well informed correspondent at Tiflis says that Russia has fully mobilized a force of nearly 70,000 men on the Turkish-Armenian frontier.

An Odessa despatch to The Daily Mail reports that the Armenians of Bitlis, Van and Mush are in peril and are appealing for Russian aid thru the Russian consuls. It is generally believed, according to the correspondent, that Russian occupation of the Turkish-Armenian districts is inevitable.

HOPE OF PEACE WANING DAILY

Balkan Delegates on Point of Leaving London But Diplomats Not Wholly Discouraged.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—(Can. Press.)—With the presentation of their note to the Turkish delegation, the date for which, however, has not been fixed, some of the Balkan delegates consider that their mission in London is ended. The Greek premier, Eleutherios Venizelos, announced tonight that he would leave before the end of the week, and the others within the next few days. The financial advisers and the military officers attached to the Bulgarian delegation will start for home tomorrow.

Despite this, the diplomats have not given up hope, and many still think that the Balkan note is another attempt to exercise pressure on Turkey, and that the allies really intend to await the answer of the new Turkish cabinet to the joint note of Europe, a course which the powers have always advised.

Animated Discussion.
The meeting of the allies lasted five hours, and the discussion was animated. The delegates reviewed the whole situation, and debated both sides of the question—the resumption of the war and the policy of delay, and trusting to time to solve the difficulties. The head of each delegation reported the conversation which he had had with Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, and reference was made again to the advice of the ambassadors to observe prudence and moderation. This greatly strengthened the arguments of that section, favoring procrastination. Their view being that after the powers' note to Turkey, which was in favor of the terms of the allies if the latter continued to follow Europe's advice, Europe would continue to give its support.

PITCHED BATTLE WITH STRIKERS

One Spectator Killed and Twelve Persons, Including Women, Wounded at Pittsburg Suburb.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 28.—(Can. Press.)—Deputy sheriffs and strikers from the Rankin plant of the American Steel and Wire Co., a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel Corporation, clashed tonight, one man being killed and 12 persons injured, several fatally. All the wounded except two deputies and a policeman, were spectators. Not a striker was injured so far as can be learned. Among the injured are several women and a 6-month-old child. The deputy sheriffs and strikers collided on Hawkins avenue, one of the principal streets of Rankin, which adjoins this city. The county officers, armed with revolvers and rifles, and the strikers, armed with stones and clubs, battled for one hour within an area of two street squares.

The rioting and shooting ended when the deputy sheriffs retreated within the fence of the mill.

Dead and Injured.
The dead man, George Kozley, was shot twice in the stomach. The injured are: Fritz Becker, shot in the head, dying; Mrs. John Schlan, shot in the arm; Richard Parish, shot in the left leg; Annie Leba, shot in the stomach; Walter Barnett, chief of police of Rankin, head lacerated; Michael Milos, aged 6 months, shot in the left ear; Charles Benson, shot in stomach; Anton Andisk, shot in the breast.
