

NEW CANADIAN SERIAL
FOR EVERY HOUSEHOLD.

THE PULPIT HARVEST.

A Series of Sermons to be Issued Monthly,

From published and unpublished sources, by the foremost British, American and Canadian Preachers, of various denominations.

A. S. & Co., in reviving the project of this publication, first announced by them in 1869, but which, from pressure of business, they were then unable to initiate, have pleasure in now announcing that they have made arrangements for the issue, at an early date, of the series of Contemporary Sermons referred to in the following Prospectus. They feel that what was advanced in announcing this Serial two years ago, can be more strongly urged now; and they trust that the initial number of "The Pulpit Harvest," which they will shortly issue, will be very interestingly received, and the series be largely subscribed for.

PROSPECTUS.

In projecting "The Pulpit Harvest" the Publishers aim at supplying the middle readers of Theological and Devotional Literature, with a selection, in cheap serial shape, of the best sermons of the day, from the pens of the ablest modern Divines of various denominations.

Much of the best writings of the many thinkers of the time is not readily accessible to the masses; and many of the finest sermons have to be sought for in much that is wearisome and unattractive to general readers. And, in the case of unpublished sermons, so few comparatively are privileged to enjoy the ministrations of the great orators of the pulpit, that much that is sound and approved in doctrine, fresh and massive in thought, and earnest and forcible in appeal is lost to the world. It has, therefore, been deemed by the publishers that a Serial giving the cream of the pulpit utterances of the first minds, would meet with great favour, and be encouragingly supported in the country. It has been further deemed that in a day like the present, any enterprise which might familiarize men with the living thought and the "great foundation truths of our common faith," currently sent forth from the pulpit, as an antidote to the folly in sacred places, and the heresy and rationalism of the age, would meet with a hearty acceptance and enlist the interest of the Church. It need only be added that the publishers, in the propriety of the selections, and in the arrangements for obtaining original sermons from the leading men of the Canadian pulpit, will endeavour to merit the support and encouragement which they trust the publication will receive.

ADAM, STEVENSON & CO.,

PUBLISHERS.

King Street East, Toronto, April, 1871.