

INSTRUCTIONS.

ALL Barrack-Masters are to account to the Deputy-Barrack-Master-General, or other person at the head of the Department, in the District they serve in, for all the barrack bedding, furniture and utensils, they receive in charge for the use of the troops.

They are also required, and directed, to send to the Deputy-Barrack-Master General, or other person at the head of the Department in the District they serve in, at the close of every two months, or oftener if required, the following Returns, Reports and Accounts, viz.

I. A Return of barrack bedding, furniture and