

- the expulsion, 115, 118-19 and note, 156. See Nova Scotia.
- Daudin, Abbé, arrested and examined before the Council, 96-9.
- Denys, Nicolas, 12 n., 18.
- Des Herbiers, governor of Ile Royale, 67, 72, 73, 80, 81.
- Dick, John, sends French and German emigrants to Nova Scotia, 61-2.
- Doucette, John, lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia, 32.
- Duquesne, governor of New France, 83.
- Du Vivier, Sieur, 50, 51.
- Estaing, Count d', invites the Acadians to Santo Domingo, 147.
- England. See Great Britain.
- Fort Gaspereau, surrendered to the British, 105.
- France, her colony in Acadia, 2-3, 9, 10, 17-19; her struggle with Britain for Acadia, 17-23, 24, 25, 27; invites Acadians to settle in Ile Royale, 29-30, 33, 35; her Acadian policy, 33, 47, 88-9; at war with Britain in Canada, 49-58; the Nova Scotia boundary dispute, 71-2; her aims in North America, 101. See New France.
- Frye, Colonel, assists in the expulsion, 121-2, 132, 150-1.
- Gilbert, Captain, and the expulsion, 122, 123.
- Goldthwaite, Captain, surrenders at Grand Pré, 54-5.
- Goreham, Captain, 73-4.
- Grandfontaine, Hubert de, governor of Acadia, 13.
- Grand Pré, New Englanders defeated at, 54-5; the expulsion of the Acadians of, 127-36.
- Great Britain, her colonies in New England, 7, 8; her struggle with France for Acadia, 17-23, 24, 25, 27; evades fulfilling guarantees to Acadians desiring to remove to Ile Royale, 30-7; her colonial policy in Acadia, 34; her war with France in Canada, 49-58; by forming British colonies in Nova Scotia hopes to settle the Acadian question, 59-63; her Acadian policy, 62-3, 67, 86, 88-9, 90-1, 116-18; and the boundaries of Nova Scotia, 71-2; determines upon aggressive action in America, 102; and the Seven Years' War, 137. See New England.
- Green, Benjamin, 119 n.
- Halifax, founding of, 59-60; raided, 81.
- Hamilton, Captain, 84.
- Handfield, Major, assists in the expulsion, 119, 124-5.
- Hébert, François, aids in the escape of Acadians, 135.
- Hébert, Joseph, 97.
- Hébert, Louis, 6.
- Hopson, Peregrine, governor of Nova Scotia, his conciliatory policy, 8, 4, 86, 87, 115 n., 116-17.
- Howe, Captain, his treacherous murder, 79.