FINANCIAL NEWS

LONDON STOCK MARKET Trading Dull and Featureless-Discount Rates Unchanged.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The stock market during the week was dull and bare of fresh features and quotations closed to-day generally lower. Despite the plentiful supply of money, outsiders were apathetic, probably awaiting the attractive new issues expected in the near future. Foreign securities yielding good returns were the firmest, with Russian bonds leading on new loan rumors; but speculative isses, including Americans, were distinctly flat. Rubber shares were depressed by the lower prices of raw rubber and selling by weak holders, while mining shares were subjected to South African and continental liquidation. Unfavorable steel trade reports and the uncertain political situation in the United States checked the efforts of bulls to raise prices in the American section and induced caution on the part of local and continental operators. Only a small professional business was transacted during the week and prices activanced barely a point. The gold outflow continues fairly large and the Bank of England failed to take any of this week's arrivals, but discount rates were not affected owing to the plentiful money supply.

ON WALL STREET.

Charles Head & Co. to R. R. Bongard:
After the first few minutes the market became extremely dull, business coming almost to a standstill in the last half of the first hour. Stocks were for sale on advances, but declines brought in a fair demand, and with the buying and salling just about offsetting, there was practically no swing to prices. An important feature of the market the was that many stocks held a good part of the gains made at and just after the opening. The market seemed to be one consisting of evening up of speculative accounts, with covering of shorts apparently about completed. London did absolutely nothing, foreign houses taking little interest in the trading. The bank statement was about as expected.

The Rickell from Einley Partell & Co.

J. P. Bickeil from Finley Barrell & Co. The same sharp difference of opinion concerning immediate future of the stock market continues, one party, and it is in-fluential, insisting that prices will have another break and the other, equally as influential, is confident that the next im-

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25 .- A murder mystery paralleling in many re-Elmore in London by her husband, Dr. H. H. Crippen, confronts the police here er of PasoRobles, buried under a vacant house in Eureka-street. Dr. Jas. Grant and Miss Marie Messerschmidt, a nurse, are under arrest in connection with the case.

The police believe the girl was murdered to shield someone else, and they are searching for a ranchman of Paso Robles, who was on intimate terms with the dead girl, who had been missing since April 20. The body was wrapped in a sheet over which nitric acid had been poured.

obalts pay big profits-when properly bought. Cobalts in our opinion are going up. We predict a rise for several reasons: (1) Cheaper power; (2) consequent decreased development cost; (3) unequalled shipments of bar silver; and

(4) undoubted resumption of dividends by several good properties. The time to buy stock is when prices are low. They're low now. We advise--Buy these Now

Peterson Lake-Because of its big possibilities-large acreage - profitable and energetic working and satisfying shipments.

Little Nip-- Because it is now shipping high grade ore and has a large short interest.

Otisse-- Because of its good physical condition improved transport facilities—new diamond drill operations and new stock issue at 6 cents per share.

Cobalt securities are recovering much of the confidence which was lost owing to an ill-advised and unwarranted speculation. To-day's buyers of the Cobalt stocks are those who thoroughly satisfy themselves of values before they invest. These buyers are farsighted. Fewer shares are loose on the market to-day than for a long time, and when these are picked up, prices will firm and bring in their train a speculation that will result in activity and sharp advances.

We want our clients to buy before the speculative fever takes possession of the market, and we shall not refrain from advising sales when we think prices have gone too far.
