BASEBALL.

St. Thomas, June 22-(Special) .- A small crowd saw the Saints take their first game from London this season today at Atlantic Park, and although the total hits were evenly divided, St. Thomas managed to bunch theirs when men were on bases. The Saints played a snappy game both in the field and when running bases. Hardy started in to do the slab work for the Railroaders and only lasted one mning, although but one hit was made off him, he was very wild. Robb replaced him and was hit pretty freely, but at inopportune

The Saints won their game in the first inning by timely hitting. Sheehan opened with a hot drive to Cope, went to second on Tibald's sacrifice, scoring on Lyons' hit to left. Hemphill followed with a hit to Howells, who allowed it to get away from him, Lyons added two more in the second on hits by Hardy, Sheehan and Tibaid.

Cope, who had singled in both the second and fifth, was cut off at the plate in each inning, trying to score on Lohman's hits. This was the nearest the Cockneys got to a score until the fifth, when a succession of infield punts and Rodden's error placed Howells and McFadden on second and first respectively, the former scoring on Jones' of this race he showed that he could be emphatic. There had been three or phy rode a mile on a bicycle, behind a four unsuccessful attempts to get the road Wednesday afternoon, in 1:05, the fastest time ever made on a wheel. Every preparation had been made by the railroad officials for the trial of speed; and his words told. Maggie Usher won the roadbed was as smooth as polished boards could make it for a distance of two miles, on an absolute level; the heat, and was considered a dangerous fastest engine was sent out as a pacemaker, with the single car built up in the rear, so as to afford shelter to the hind the flag. At the first half both his rider. Murphy's attempt was to ride a mile a minute, and though he failed, he rode faster than anyone else had been able to ride before. It was an extremely hazardous undertaking. The ride over seemed just as risky as it did | did great work in the third. From the just before the start. The rider and train began the journey at a moderate rate of speed about three-quarters of a mile above where the contrivance was fixed to take the time of crossing the starting line. At each puff of the engine the pace grew faster, until as the line was seen to flash from under the car and rider, those in the car thought the mile-a-minute gait was surely reached. Murphy clung below the car, every nerve strained, and his two feet chasing around the pedals so swiftly that only an indistinct blur was visble. His eyes were riveted to the black line in front of him. The few assembled on the rear platform were silent in awe of a catastrophe, the rumble of the fast flying locomotive being most distinguishable. When it was over, the finishing line crossed, and the train began to slacken up, a great shout arose, and Murphy was cheered to the echo for his display of almost incredible nerve and grit. He failed to reach quite a minute gait in spite of his Herculean efforts.

Laurentian Wins Two Straight Heats -Broken Hobbles Spoiled R. R.'s Good Chance.

The third day of the races at Queen's Park was also characterized by fine weather, a large crowd, including many ladies, keen contests and the landing of favorites. The winners were Paddy R., Maggie Usher and Laurentian, the latter adding two more straight wins to his record. Starter Bush had more trouble with the 2:27 pacers than with any other field so far. He talked sharply to the drivers, but no fines were imposed. The fea-tures of the day were Hal Forest's break near the wire, when his victory seemed a dead sure thing. R. R.'s untimely accident and Laurentian's defeat of Newbury. During the afternoon the Musical Society Band played popular airs.

The purses yesterday were as follows: 2:16 pace, $400; 2:27 pace, $300; three-quarters milé running, $200. FIRST RACE-2:16 PACE.

There were only three starters, Lon H. and Arbuteskan being scratched. The Each of the others sold fairly well at 5 to 4. The favorite kept the lead until the stretch was reached, when Hal Forest, who had been crowding him for the last quarter, forged a good length ahead. Down to the wire the leaders thundered with Forest well ahead, and apparently a sure winner. Among the speculators the excitement was at a hight pitch. But the suspense ended suddenly. Forest could not stand pros-perity. When a couple of rods from the wire, the Markdele bay broke, and the favorite won amid great cheering. Paddy R. proved himself a very steady traveler throughout the race, while Forest made frequent skips. Summary: Paddy R., b. s., by Opposition,

Time-2:18¼, 2:19¼, 2:19, 2:19¼. Second race, 2:27 pace.—With ten horses in the field, Starter Bush had his hands full. However, the starts were well effected without much delay. Mr. Bush is usually mild-mannered, and is never nervous. In the last heat comotive on the Long Island Rail- field away, and the starter halted the drivers in front of him. "If any man gets ahead of that pole horse this time it will cost him $10," he said the three straight heats in grand style. R. & R. showed up well in the first rival of the beautiful bay mare. Then, owing to an accident, he finished becheck and hobbles broke, causing & genuine confusion among the bunch behind him. Walter H. gave the favorite a hot chase in the second heat, and Jerry Chimes and Royal L. both three-quarter pole Royal L. gained rapidly on Usher, who had kept the lead from the start. Chimes kept his nose with Royal L.'s sulky, and went forward in good shape. As the stretch was neared Royal L. was working beautifully. She had overtaken the leader. Then a slight, but fatal, skip occurred, and the favorite landed. Summary: Maggie Usher, b. m., by Little Hamilton, E. Third race, 34 mile, running, best 2 in 3—The son of the famous Salvator was again victorious. Laurentian again landed first money in two straight wins. The feat was greater than that of Tuesday, as his weights were increased five pounds. He carried 111 pounds yesterday. New Berry and Dogma had 114 pounds each, Alarm and Glendago 116 each, and Miss Patrick 101. In the betting ring the Toronto horse was a favorite at 2 to 5, but New Berry had many admirers, who counted on the favorite being downed. The financial argument was however, chiefly confined to second and third choice. Yellow Jacket drew the pole, and Alarum soon got the lead, with Laurentian second and New Berry third. Alarum was overtaken gradually, and passed on the stretch. In the second heat Yellow Jacket, after getinto third place. Laurentian and New Berry came down the stretch neck and He neck, and both under the whip. It was a close finish. Walter Murray rode Laurentian, Harry Diamond, of Guelph,
