Ferguson took the stand.

the Hyman-Gray election?"

"You had red tickets?"

eams, and $5 for singles?"

"Yes. for teams."

uch did you get?"

"I can't remember."

"From Mr. Reid."

"Where is it?"

"Ten dollars."

nard up."

"No.

"Yes."

fore?"

red."

magistrate. 'Yes.'

election?'

ers as deputies?'

the magistrate.

"Both sides do it."

"Nothing."

thousand dollars?

threes for rigs."

"Keep any report?"

paid what they charged.

how much they were to get?"

ckets out in bunches."

"I don't think so."

"What do you do?"

during the by-election?"

"Did you get $1,000?"

Beck-Rumball election?"

the tickets redeemed."

"No, I could give a liveryman

ozen tickets if he had a dozen rigs.'

"Did you pay Hugh Sharkey $5?"

"Where did you get the money?"

"What did you get yourself?"

"I am a lumber merchant."

"I think I paid the old man's railway

"It was my own. The old man was

Mr. DuVernet took occasion to say

"How much did you contribute - a

And Mr. Ferguson laughed heartily.

$700 or $800. We paid tens, or fives and "Did you handle the rigs in the

"How much did you pay out?"

'It always runs about the same."

"Did you ever have red tickets be-

"They always had tickets red and white. I don't know why they were

"Did you hold any envelopes in any

"I had heard it said that the cross

"You knew that active workers in London were appointing active work-

"It's no credit to either side," said

"It's not a circumstance to what was

"You people have had ten years to

Mr. Godfrey retorted that the Con-

both sides to put a stop to this busi-

"It was done in Kingston, effective-

"As Mr. Gibbons declared yesterday," the magistrate continued, "there is the danger of fighting the devil with fire;

it is an evil which must be avoided."

Conservative Rigs.

"Tell us above the Conservative rigs,"

"Hiring rigs is illegal," Mr. Godfrey re-

Continued from page one.

Dr. Moorhouse Will Not Resign.

Dr. Moorhouse was seen by a repre-

Mr. Ferguson's evidence was then asked the

"How long after the elections

"Thirty, forty or sixty days,"

"To avoid a protest,"

to find out how people voted?

would show through the ballots."

be changed," said Mr. Godfrey.

do it." Mr. Armour exclaimed years and had done nothing.

ness," said his worship.

proceeded with.

a venial sin.

on the subject.

Mr. Godfrey asked.

ly," Mr. Godfrey pointed out.

you can have the other half."

the rigs for the Conservatives."

Court adjourned at 1:30 o'clock.

"Who is Graydon?"

"No."

"I was."

"Yes.

"Did you have 300?"

"I got nothing."

"Yes, with both of them."

Did you have anything to do

"When you cashed them in he

"Why did you have red tickets?"

"The other side had tickets, too."

de," warned Mr. Wilkie sarcastically.

"How many tickets did you have?"

"Who was to redeem the tickets?"

"I guess I gave it to Mr. Reid."

"Where were you to get the money?

BIG STORM AND TIDAL WAVE SWEEPS SOUTHERN FRENCH COAST

Paris, Nov. 1.-A violent storm has swept over the south of France, accompanied by heavy falls of snow on the coast and a tidal wave at Toulon. in which many small craft were torn from their anchorages and wrecked, and the quays are flooded. Nice suffered most severely, the famous promenade Des Anglias and the neighboring streets being under water a foot deep. The shops there were so badly flooded that the contents of some of them were totally destroyed. The damage done will amount to an enormous sum.

Annual Convention.

The twelfth annual convention of the ington Street Methodist Church, is largely attended, and bids fair to be the breakfast, the happy couple left on the most successful held in this vicinity

At the morning session, Mr. Israel Taylor delivered a very interesting groom being manager of the C. P. R. short lecture on "The Bible and Personal Work," and Rev. J. Holmes, Dr. PYBURN-GANDER. H. K. Reynolds, and Rev. D. E. Martin gave interesting readings and talks.

missions during the past year. as follows

Evening Session. Rev. James Livingstone, chairman.

ercises-Mr. J. F. Maine. 8:00-Music 8:05-Introduction of Officers-elect.

Birr. 8:45-Collection and Music.

9:00-"The Young People of Today and their Relation to the Church"-Rev. R. D. Hamilton, Petrolea. Doxology.

CONDENSED LOCAL NEWS

-Mrs. Elizabeth A. Ormond and daughters wish to thank their many friends and relatives for the kindness shown by them during their recent sad bereavement.

-Lord Aylmer arrived in this city last night on his semi-annual tour of inspection. This morning he inspected dition of which he found satisfactory. -Two great stories will begin in Saturday's Advertiser. "The Woman in Alcove," by Anna Katharine Green, will be published in daily installments. "Doubloons," by Eden Philpotts and Arnold Bennett, will appear in the Saturday Advertiser only. VITAL STATISTICS.

During October, 69 deaths, 38 marof the deaths occurring among persons over 70 years of age, while many were typhoid fever, and two to cancer.

SOCIALISM DISCUSSED.

The ability of a live subject to atof the Liberal Christian Union, held at to whom it was handed over. the Chapter House bulding, Richmond street north, last evening, when a most interesting paper was read by Mr. W. R. Jex, C. A., on the subject, "Socialism." The paper was followed by a prolonged discussion in which the following, among others, took part: Messrs. Gilpin, Cottam, Aitkens, Burgess, Daly, Darch, Pearce, Courtenay, Carnegie, Ashplant and Johnston. The programme of the Liberal Christian Union for the coming season covers several papers on live current topics. ASYLUM CONCERT.

A most enjoyable concert was given at the asylum last night by Miss Ray- They were each fined $5 for being drunk mond and a few of her friends, among whom were the Misses Green, Southam, Fox and Love, and Messrs. R. Wilson, Pope, Blott, Mortimer and Ware. Some of the numbers were exceedingly well rendered, and were enjoyed by the packed house of patients, employes and others. The officers of the institution wish to tender their sincere thanks for this pleasant evening, and to express the hope that other capable entertainers-of whom London has many-may be moved by charitable feeling towards the poor unfortunates in the asylum, who lead such monotonous lives, to favor them with an occasional concert, etc., during some of the coming long winter evenings. NEW HORSES WANTED.

or two horses which are said to be the manner in which business is transsuitable for the fire department. One acted by the board of aldermen, conof them is owned by a farmer near cluding by explaining what changes Lucan. The matter was brought to the can be brought about should the govattention of No. 3 committee last even- ernment of the city be placed in the his expense money, but the best Mr. ing, and as a result of questioning by hands of a commission, as is now be- DuVernet would say was that he would Ald. Stevenson, purchases will be made ing proposed. Mr. Baker's address from city dealers whenever possible. The alderman suggested that in future the students on many matters on when horses become unfit for service which they were not heretofore well on the department they should be sold posted. before they are worn out, and the chief fell in with this idea, which he said was 9. good one. Chief Clark stated that after being on the department four or Two Students of Huron College Made five years a horse should be sold. The animal would then bring a good price, and this would save the loss of a considerable sum to the city.

CATER-HOEHN. One of the prettiest house weddings of the season was that of Vevia E. Hoehn to W. G. Cater, at the residence of the bride's parents, 695 York street, at 2 p.m. today. Rev. Arthur Carofficiated. The bride wore white celine over white taffeta, and carried a shower of roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Allie Burrows, cousin of the bride, wore pink taffeta silk. Mr. Arthur Hoehn, brother of the bride, was groomsman. The presents received Easy to Take Easy to Operate

Hood's Pills

EPWORTH LEAGUES GROWING were costly and many, and included a silver tea service from Mr. Sim Walsh, a handsome clock from the bride's Encouraging Reports Made at Twelfth uncle, and an elegant clock from the groom's ex-workmates, the operators of the C. P. R. and G. N. W. Telegraph Companies. The house was beautifully decorated with 'mums, roses and Epworth League of the London district, smilax. The Wedding March was which is being held today in the Well- played by the groom's sister, Mrs. L. H. Moore. After a tasty wedding 5:28 C. P. R. train, amid the best wishes of all, for Port Arthur, where they will make their future home, the

A very pretty wedding took place at St James' Church, Caledon East, Ont., re-The secretary's report showed that cently, when Miss Margaret Mabel the total number of Epworth Leagues Gander, eldest daughter of Rev. George next examined. He swore he was seen in this district now is 36; membership Gander, was married to Mr. David John by Jerry Collins and another man 1,679—an increase of 280 over last year. Pyburn, of Toronto. The bride looked about his vote previous to the elec Number of new church members, 144; very handsome in white slik-embroidered tion. As to who the other man was he $1,400 have been raised for foreign muslin, lace trimmed, and carried a could not say. After the election he The programme for this evening is marriage ceremony was performed by the Collins. He was not told that he would ed as bridesmaid, was also in white, and was paid over, but witness did not 7:30-Song Service and Devotional Ex- carried red roses. The groom was assisted by Mr. Hugh Debney, of Toronto. After a dainty repast, Mr. and Mrs. Pyburn left for Hamilton and London, and on their 8:15-"Why I Believe in Foreign Mis- return will reside in Toronto. The bride sions"-Rev. J. E. J. Millyard, is a former resident of this city, and has many friends here.

CLEARING HOUSE RETURNS.

average of $1,275,000 a week. A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE

Customs Collections for October Take a Jump of Over $11,000.

The report of the London customs house ers continues good.

During the month the collections for the the ballot box. the Wolseley Barracks force, the con- port totaled $2,512 63, as against $71.100 58 for the corresponding month a year ago, asked Spence to have tea with him. showing the very substantial increase of $11,412 05.

MORE CONSCIENCE MONEY

City Clerk Receives $5 From a Stricken Individual.

City Clerk Baker received a rather Steve Collins and Gibson had voted for riages, and 91 deaths were registered interesting letter in his mail this morn- Beck. It was Sifton who went over with the city clerk. The month was ing. The missive was addressed in a the ballots. large, bold hand, as follows: "Mr. Baker, City Clerk, City."

On opening it the clerk found a crisp of persons between 60 and 70. Four 5 Merchants' Bank note, and a small deaths were due to consumption, five to sheet of paper with the following writers. sheet of paper, with the following written on it: "Conscience money for taxes."

The letter bore the postmark "Oct. 31, have the envelopes." tract an audience was ably demon- 11 p.m." Who it came from is a puzzle strated at the regular weekly meeting alike to the city clerk and the treasurer,

AN EXPENSIVE DRIVE

Two Men Interfere With a Watchman at Railway Crossing.

At the police court this morning two men who got slightly intoxicated while driving about town in a wagon, came up for trial. It appears that when they came to a railway crossing they were not satisfied with the way the watchman went about opening the gates, so they took the matter into their own hands. and disorderly.

Elijah Bavin, who has been doing a few days in Castle Carter, on a charge of abusive language, laid by Jennie Brown, was allowed to go this morning.

TALKED TO STUDENTS

City Clerk Baker Discusses Municipal Matters Before Model School Class.

At the request of Principal Kirk, City Clerk Baker this morning addressed the students of the Model School on municipal matters.

A class of nearly 50 was in attendance. Mr. Baker spoke on the qualifications for electors, the holding of Fire Chief Clark has his eye upon one elections, the powers of the council, was very interesting, and enlightened

ORDINATION AT ST. PAUL'S

Deacons by the Bishop.

An ordination service was held this morning at St. Paul's Cathedral by the Bishop of Huron, when Messrs. F. K. Hughes and J. M. Horton, students of Huron College, were ordained deacons. The sermon was preached by Rev. Rural Dean Hicks, B. D., of Simcoe from St. Luke, xxvi., 27: "I am amons you, as he that serveth." The preacher dwelt chiefly upon the dignity and greatness of service, pointing to Christ's example, and urging young men who were ordained to follow the example of their Saviour.

At the conclusion of the ordination service, Holy Communion was administered by the bishop, Dean Davis, and Archdeacons Richardson and Hill. The candidates were presented by Archdeacon Richardson.

Rev. F. K. Hughes has been ap-Rev. J. M. Horton will have charge of the mission at Ripley and Pine River.

O'Meara Is Committed.

Continued from page one.

"What took place between you and "I can't remember."

'Who else did you hand envelope

"I couldn't tell their names. I don't Not Concealing the Truth.

.The magistrate accused the witness of an intention to conceal the truth. Mr. Fitzpatrick denied the charge "I'm telling you all I know," he said. 'Was it Ranahan alone who arranged for the leaving of the envelopes with you? "I think there was a man with 14m." "Did you have anything to do with Mr. Reid or Mr. O'Gorman at the elec-

"I don't know."

"Did you hold any envelopes in the by-election? "How many times did Rahahan get you to hold envelopes?' "I can't remember. "Did you pay out any money your

"No." "Get any yourself?"

did not influence me.

"No. James Orme, of Wilson avenue, was shower bouquet of lilles of the valley. The went to Lewis' hotel and got $10 from bride's father, Rev. George Gander. Miss have to vote for Hyman. Another Ruby Gander, sister of the bride, who act- man was with Collins when the money know him.

"You would have voted for Hyman, anyway?" Mr. Wilkie asked. "Yes. I wish to make that point clear," the witness replied. "The money

Employed by Mr. Beck.

George Saunby, of West London, a The London clearing house report for man of 60, swore that previous to the that Mr. Ferguson was not looking for October shows clearings of $5,104,695, an election Tom Lewis met him and told money, and the magistrate half-apolohim if he voted for Hyman he would make it all right. The witness refused the offer, and voted for Gray.

"You were sworn at the election?" asked Mr. Wilkie. "And you swore that nothing had been promised you?" "Yes."

"You were employed by Mr. Beck?" "Yes."

Wm. Serviss was placed for a third for October would indicate that business time in the box and examined as to with London merchants and manufactur- what took place at the Beck-Rumball election in regard to the opening of He said that after the poll closed he Spence consented, and later he and Spence went downtown to hear the result of the election. Sifton was with them, and he suggested that all three should go bæck to the house. Some one of the party opened the box, who, he could not say, but Sifton suggested that it be done. It was learned when the ballots had been gone over that

"How much money were Collins and Gibson to get?"

"Five dollars each." "What was to be done with the $10?" "There was nothing spoken about it, except that Sifton asked me if I had the envelopes for them. I happened to

"How many envelopes did you hold in the Rumball election?' "About a dozen."

"Where did the money come from in the Hyman-Grav election?" "I got the envelopes from Mr. Mul-

"When did you first hold them in an election?"

"In the Beck-Rumball election." "What pay did you get that time?" "I think I got $5 all told."

"Who did you get them from in the Beck-Rumball election?" "From Sifton, I think."

"What were you doing the day the ballot box was opened?"

"I was inside scrutineer." Wants His Expense Money.

"You had taken an oath of secrecy?

"What justification have you for the part you took in it?' "I took no part in it." "You looked on?"

"Yes." "What did you get at the Hyman-Gray election?'

"Twenty-five dollars." "Who gave it to you?" "Sifton."

"Who was the general returning ofcer at the time.' "I don't remember." "You did not report to him what had been done?" "No." To Mr. Godfrey witness stated that Mulloy had given him no envelopes in the Beck-Rumball election. Michael Thompson, of London, put up a protest that he had not been paid be paid. The witness swore he got $5 in the by-election, but he did not know from marked; "but it is only looked upon as whom. In the Beck-Rumball election he also got $5. Witness had voted for Hyman and Rumball.

Archie Campbell, of London, was next called. He denied being the man Students Object to Lectures uted partly to a cable message from next called. He denied being the man who paid money to Thompson. Witness said he had paid money to no one. He had canvassed voters during the election.

"Who went around with you?" "Jim McCormick once or twice, and "I am told you made promises voters.'

"Pete Lewis canvassed with you?" "No. It was Phil, but not in the by-elections. It was years ago." George Watson, of London, swore he got no money at any election in Lon-with their lectures, and the same thing Archie Campbell had canvassed is bound to occur here at some time him in one election, but had offered or other," said a member of the fac-

"Ever get an envelope?"

"Ever make a statement that Campbell had promised you money?"

him. However, if it is simply a change in the style of lecturing that is wanted, pointed to the charge of the mission of Thedford, Arkona and Kettle Point. typewritten instructions from the London lawyers. "You never made such statement? Dr. Moorhouse can easily meet the wishes of the students." "No. It's false."

Robert Hossack was called but and be and, and then Donald BEGINS HEALING INSTANTLY

Balm Zoin is absorbed so quickly that you'll wonder where it has gone. No trace of grease or stickiness remains to annoy. Just a dainty, elusive odor to tell that it "Didn't the men get $10 for double has been applied, and an immediate sense of comfort to show that "No; I think we paid $3 for single the healing has begun. It soothes chapped and roughened skin in a magical way, is as harmless as dew, and costs but 25 cents. "Don't say anything about the other

Strong's Drug Store

184 DUNDAS STREET. Strong's Baking Powder leadsothers follow.

sentative of The Advertiser this morning, and he stated that for some time minutes, when the whole market bepast he had had trouble with the students. Not long since they left the lecture-room and went to the library, where they created such a disturbance that he was compelled to tell them that To the magistrate Mr. Ferguson said it had to discontinue. The students that the livery men and others charged thereupon asked Dr. Moorhouse for an different prices for rigs, and they were interview, which was granted. They day. Money was again in good demand, said they were much dissatisfied with and supply light, most loans being "Was it arranged before the election his lectures, and that they did not con-made at about 71/2 per cent. Disappoint-"What was the highest price paid?" Moorhouse told the classes in return "I am told that you handed these had taken the proper course to have any grievance remedied, and that nothing could be gained by misconduct. Then came the meeting of the execu-"Were there 300 tickets given out?"

Dr. Moorhouse said today: "I certainly have no intention of resigning the chair of practice of medicine at the college, and what is more, the faculty have upheld me in everything I have done.

The Students' Position.

The students are placed in a rather awkward position by the course they have taken. Should they decide to leave the school they would not be able to enter another one in Canada without having a card, stating that they had attended a certain number of lectures at the London college, and this could not be granted them. Thus they would lose the balance of the term-practically one year-unless they could go to the United States, "Did you get $3,000 from Mr. Reid and succeed in gaining admission to a college in the middle of a term.

"Maybe, but I think the rigs cost CANADIAN CLUB'S MEETING. The meeting of the Canadian Club in the city hall this evening promises to be of particular interest to all. The subject of municipal ownership will be brought up for discussion, the mayor having agreed to present a paper on the question. The public are cordially invited. THE EFFICACY of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup in curing coughs and colds and arresting inflammation of the lungs, can be established by hundreds of testimonials from all carts. of men. It is a standard remedy in these ailments, and all affections of the throat it is highly recommended by and lungs. It is highly recomedicine vendors because the medicine vendors, because they know and appreciate its value as a curative. Try it. Show, Toronto, Nov. 6 to 10.

A delightful exhibition under aus-"Did you know that a plan existed pices of Ontario Horticultural Society to be held at Massey Hall. The famous Black Dike Band will be in attendance.

The Grand Trunk Railway System will issue tickets from all stations in Ontario to Toronto Nov. 7th and 8th. at single fare for round trip, good returning until Nov. 10th. Call on G. T. R. agents.

"It's not a circumstance to what was done against the Liberals of London," said Mr. Wilkle, when by the act of a partisan revising barrister, afterward abetted by a partisan judge, it was said who should and who should not vote, and Hyman was robbed."

"The law regarding deputies should be changed," said Mr. Godfrey.

"A COUGH is often the forerunner of serious pulmonary afflictions, yet there is a simple cure within the reach of all in Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, an old-time and wide'y recognized remedy, which, if resorted to at the inception of a cold, will invariably give relief, and by overcoming the trouble, guard the system against any serious consequences. Price, 25 cents, at all dealers.

DIES ON CHURCH STEPS.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 1. - T. Kelly, who does business on the By-Ward servatives had been in power eighteen market, while going into St. Bridget's Church this morning, to attend early The magistrate then said that the mass, fell on the steps, dead. He was remark of a London witness yesterday carried into the basement of the that he might as well sell his vote church. Canon Sloan, the pastor, was as have it stolen from him had im- saying mass, and could not go to pressed him more than anything else Kelly, but Canon Planton was sent for with the popular opinion in London. and was on hand a few minutes after "There should be enough good men on the sad occurrence.

CHICAGO EXCHANGE. Reported by C. N. Spencer, Stockbroker, Market Lane, for The Advertiser.

Chicago, Nov. 1. Open, High. Low. Close. 73% 74% 73% 74% 78% 79% 78% 79% 78% 79% Wheatember$ December OatsDecember May Pork— "Well," said Mr. Ferguson, "I would go May Lard to a liveryman, and be would say to me, have given Graydon half of my rigs, and have the other half."

Laturary 8 45
May 8 47
Short Ribs— January 7 52 May 7 67 7 76 7 85 7 52 7 72 7 57 7 85 "He's a London lawyer, who looks after STOCK MARKETS.

H. C. Becher, stockoroker, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today: New York, Nov. 1. - Noon. - The somewhat better tone that prevailed at the opening of the market was attrib-Mr. Croker to McCarren, published this

"SPARKS" (York Springs Water Carbonated)

stomach, and improve the flavor of the liquors you mix it with. Order York

Sparks at a good place in quarts, pints or splits. Bottled At the Spring

If Your Work Tires You, Or You Feel Faint Between Meals, Nothing

Blue Ribbon Tea

BLACK, GREEN, MIXED -25c to $1.0) a lb. -ALL GROCERS morning, in which Mr. Crois supports the senator's attitude of hostility towards Hearst. It is thought that Richard Croker has still sufficient influence with Tammany to control a number of votes. The moderate display of activlity disappeared after the first fifteen came dull and uninteresting. Penna enjoyed a sharp advance, and the character of the buying was such as to create the impression that the directors at their meeting today would increase the rate of dividend. The upward movement in Reading seemed to be sider they were receiving as much ment was expressed that in spite of the benefit from them as they should, Dr. 6 per cent Bank of England rate, the that by asking for an interview they slightly lower than last week. The supproportion of reserves to liabilities was ply of Hughes money, 21/4 to 1, is large, and the general feeling on the Exchange is that Mr. Hearst will be badly beaten. There are, however, some houses with political connections, who claim Republicans are overconfident. It looks as though we will have a dull market. Later Penna declared 7 per cent dividend.

Reported by C. N. Spencer, stockbroker Market Lane, for The Advertiser. New York, Nov. 1. Open High Low 2 p.m Ama! Copper ... 10956 11078 10956
American Sugar Co ... 13252 133 18245
American Locomotive ... 7334 74 7334
American Foundry ... 43 4352 43
American Refining Co ... 15314 15456 15314
American Cotton Oil ... 3434 8476 3434
Atchison, com ... 10036 101 10036 American Cotton Oil 3494 5498
Atchison, com 10036 101
Atchison, pfd 101
Baltimore & Ohio 11814 11876
Brooklyn Transit 7734 7814
C. P. R 17414 175
Ches. & Ohio 66 56
Chic. Great Wastern 17414 1734 Ches. & Ohio
Chic Great Western ... 1714
Colorado Fuel & Iron ... 5014 Erie, pfd Inter Met. 86½ 86 36¼ 84 3356 34 148¼ 142½ 143¼ 24¼ 22¼ 22¾ 94¼ 98½ 98½ 127¼ 127¼ 126¼ 127¼ Nat. Lead 7414
Ontario & Western 4514
Pennsylvania 14112
People's Gas 8812 881/2 885/8 1381/4 1405/8 Cent. Leather..... 37 3652 37 4978 4954 4578 4754 6 4758 1658 1658 1658 1958 19 19 4234 4134 4254

Western Union Tel Sales to noon, 294,300. OIL MARKETS.

PITTSBURG. Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 31.—Oil opened and closed at $1 58. OIL CITY.

Oil City, Pa., Oct. 31.—Credit balances, $1 58. LONDON. London, Oct. 31.—Petroleum, American refined, 6 7-16d; spirits, 8d.

ANTWERP. Antwerp, Oct. 31.-Petroleum, 19 francs tching, bleeding and protruding piles. See testimonials in the press and ask your neighbors about it. You can use it and get your money back it not satisfied. 60c, at all dealers or ELMANSON BATTER 60.

FREE BOOLKET On Dress Cutting

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Send of call at the London Cut-ting School. Cutting, designing and preparing instructions—most up-to-date methods, 243 DUNDAS STREET.

Quality in Spoons, Knives and Forks

IIGHEST quality and lowest price are combined in Plated Silverware from Diamond Hall'sown in a richly plain pattern that reminds one of old-time family sterling ware. Tea Spoons - $3.00 doz.

Special attention is called to the following prices for heavy quality

Dessert Forks or Spoons - - 5.00 doz. Dessert Knives - 4,50 doz.

We send upon request free of charge

our large illustrated catalogue.

Ryrie Bros Limited
Toronto, Ont.

Great Shear Sale

We place on sale today 25 dozen finest

House Shears Regular Price 75c SALE PRICE, - 50C

Every pair is fully warranted, and if not satisfactory may be returned.

Cowan's Hardware, 127 DUNDAS STREET.

JUST AS THE

machine-made shoe has replaced the old-fashloned hand-made shoe, so will the machine-repaired shoe replace the old-fashloned hand-cobbled shoe. Work called Dr. Chase's Oincment is a certain and guaranteed curefor each and every for m of
itching, bleeding

You will be wise if vou order

Truesdale Coal

-From-

JOHN M. DALY

Don't Throw Away Your Money

By investing in a poor stove or range. Get the best to be had by buying a home-made stove or range.

THE PANDORA RANGE HEADS THE LIST. A Full Line of Famous Baseburners and Belle Oak Heaters at

J. A. BROWNLEE Phone 652. 385-387 Talbot St.

CAPITAL, $4,000,000

ASSETS, $39,000,000 ESTABLISHED 1855. ESTABLISHED 1855. RESERVE, $4,400,000

Saving for Christmas Two months is not too far ahead to begin. Start now by depositing your > weekly surplus where you won't spend but where you can get it when you want it. The best place is the safest. The safest place is a bank of half a century's standing.

The Bank of Toronto

THREE BRANCHES IN LONDON. Corner Richmond and King Streets. JOHN PRINGLE, Manager.

Richmond and John Streets. Corner Adelaide and Dundas Streets.

house put in an appearance. Since that time no lectures have been given It is felt that the difficulty will be settled satisfactorily to both the students and the faculty. The members of the latter body are not at all worried over the situation. "There is not a college in existence where the students do not take exception to one or more of the professors, and find fault ulty this morning. "Dr. Moorhouse has been one of those who stood behind the school from its inception and helped to build it up, and we must stand by

Zestful, limpid, will please your teste, benefit your