ASSESSMENTS OF SEPARATE SCHOOLS WILL BE REVISED

Controller Shaw Promises Some Fireworks Shortly.

ALLEGES DEFRAUDING

Sunday Car Bylaw Passed by City Council for One Year.

The most striking feature of the session of the city council last evening was the fact that the meeting ended at 9:15 o'clock. This is a feat. It is the best effort of the aldermen to date, and it is to be hoped that it continues and it is to be hoped that it continues to such an extent that it will become a habit. Somebody circulated Elbert Hubbard's lecture on silence, and this may have produced the right effect. The submission of the separate school assessments to the board of education for revision started a little diversion. "What is the idea back of this?" asked Ald. Domahue. "Where did it originate? We should have some information as to whether or not the assessments have not been properly made."

ETHE GIRL PHILIPPA" At the Patricia Thursday, Friday and manness presented a report on the convention, and it was ordered printed in the minutes.

The bylaw closing the drug stores at 8 o'clock was passed. There was some objection, as some of the members wanted to know whether or not prescriptions would be filled in cases of emergency after hours. This was cleared up satisfactorily, and the bylaw passed. One member pulled a fine bon mot when he suggested that a clause to this effect be inserted in the presamble "after the bylaw." Funny that a preamble should follow a bylaw, is it preamble should follow a bylaw, is it of: The bylaw will become effective in JOHN MORAN DIES

Must Give Notice.

The council passed the suggestion of the utilities commission that two months' notice of paving streets be given the commission. given the commission, so that mains and services may be properly laid. Inspector McCallum was given power to investigate food conditions, obtain-Inspector McCallum was given power to investigate food conditions, obtaining information as to the stocks in hand, the price paid for them, the selling price, etc. He will also have power to go into coal matters.

The council also decided to ask the Government to take up the matter of a coal supply, as it was impossible for the municipalities to deal with the coal dealers and get a price or supply.

Warden Archie Blakke of the county council was present, and he asked the council to attend some of the sessions, particularly that dealing with good roads. As many of the aldermen as can possibly attend will be present.

There was much other routine business.

The agreements between the utilties ommission and the Southern Ontario Gas Company for a supply of natural gas are in the hands of City Solicitor Meredith, and will be signed in a short time, possibly this week. The principles of the agreement have been accepted, some slight changes in the wording of minor clauses being necessary. The laying of the mains will be commenced in a short time. The pipe has been ordered, and is on its way to London. There should be natural gas for some of the manufacturers by the beginning of July at least of July at least.
