

BOLSHEVISM HAS BROKEN OUT IN GERMAN SILESIA

Note for the Medical Bylaw, the Industrial Bylaw, and Commission Government

POPULATION OF CITY HAS PAID $10 A HEAD IN TAXES FOR WAR, THIS PLACING IT SECOND IN DOMINION

Review of What Has Been Paid Here Shows That Citizens Have Reason To Be Proud of Their Financial Assistance—Population and Assessment Increasing.

With pardonable pride London can look back over its record during the war. It is a record of financial assistance to the nation, of the payment of taxes, of the contribution of the city to the war effort. The review of what has been paid here shows that citizens have reason to be proud of their financial assistance. The population of the city has increased, and the assessment has increased. The city has paid $10 a head in taxes for war, placing it second in the Dominion.

SKIDMORE'S FRIENDS CONFIDENT HE WILL GET FREEDOM SOON

May Be Liberated Today by Order of Justice Department.

NEW APPEAL TODAY

Stratford Labor Man Is Sentenced to Seven Months in Jail.

[Special to The Advertiser.]—The friends of Arthur Skidmore are hopeful that he will be allowed his freedom so that he may be at home with his wife and five children for New Year's Day.

Arthur Skidmore, a labor man, who has been sentenced to seven months in jail for having been a member of the Canadian Forward Movement, is expected to be liberated today at the instance of his friends.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

His appeal reached the acting justice of the peace today. It is expected that he will be allowed his freedom.

One Edition Only New Year's Day

Following its usual custom, The Advertiser will issue but one edition on New Year's Day. The morning edition will be sent to all subscribers. Election results will be bulletined from the front of the Advertiser building upon receipt of the figures at the close of the polls.

460,000 SONS OF ITALY DIED DURING WAR

Nearly One Million Wounded, 500,000 Totally Incapacitated.

Rome, Dec. 31.—The supreme command of the Italian army has announced that Italian losses on all fronts during the war totalled 460,000 dead, 1,000,000 wounded, and 500,000 totally incapacitated.

PRES. WILSON AND WIFE LEAVE LONDON EN ROUTE TO FRANCE

Royalty Bids Good-Bye to the U. S. Executive and Party.

Dover, Eng., Dec. 31.—President Wilson and his party sailed from Dover for France today.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

London, Dec. 31.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Victoria station at 2:15 o'clock this morning on a special train en route to France.

"Thank You; I Always Told You They Would Have To Come Out"

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

Admiral Sir David Beatty acknowledged the cheers from his fleet as they passed his flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, in review after the German surrender.

BOLSHEVISM IS RAMPANT IN SILESIA

Miners Are On Strike, Murder and Pillaging Prevail.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

London, Dec. 31.—Bolshevism broke out in German Silesia on Saturday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express.

"BALANCE OF POWER" SYSTEM DEVISED TO SECURE PEACE PLUNGED WORLD INTO WAR

New York World Points Out That Clemenceau's Plan Would Make Great Britain and U. S. Underwrite Foreign Policies of France and Italy For All Time.

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."

New York, Dec. 31.—The New York World, which usually supports the Wilson administration, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "Differences of opinion between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau regarding the foundations of peace, were brought into sharp contrast yesterday by the publication of the two men's views on the balance of power system."