

Russian
e up from ne English frieze, in style, fin-
at velvet
al buttons,
le linings,
ears, very

Piece Nor-
from navy
eeds, with pe, invert oke, strong
y tailored,
s, sizes 25

er
r boys'
ties we neces-
are are

rs, special, 45c.
49c.
ces.

and stiff
all one

ats

in green,
d amiral
D. Mon-

ises

winter
her --- ything
en.
a mill
---ar-

Papers,
and two

s, choice 23c.

ts, light

s would like to ship council con-
unemployed this providing work
ere is already a stitution in the winter.

$8 FOOT

East Toronto, choice level, good building room, increasing in value, handy siding, good location, 1 1/2 miles from city, H. H. WILLIAMS & CO. REALTY BROKERS, 28 VICTORIA ST.

PROBS—Fair; stationary or slightly higher temperature.

HURLS A STONE AND MURDER IS DONE

Italian Sport at Ingersoll Becomes Scene of Crime Sunday Afternoon—Murderer Escapes.

INGERSOLL, Nov. 1.—(Special).—Murder was the outcome of a dispute this afternoon between two Italians, members of a party of natives in the employ of the C.P.R., who for the past few days have been occupying cars here. The immediate cause of the fatal quarrel is not definitely known, but it is supposed to have been due to a difference of opinion as to a game of cards which had been playing in a car in which the Italians in the party were. The quarrel broke out in a large stone, weighing probably two pounds, and hurled it at his fellow-countryman, Paul Constantini, the missile struck Constantini on the left temple with such force that he dropped in his tracks and expired before a doctor arrived. Intense excitement followed the crime, during which Constantini made his escape, and a search was at once made for him his whereabouts are still unknown. His description has been wired to many neighboring points. The tragedy occurred shortly after 4 o'clock and the police had very little time to follow the trail. After Constantini received the death blow, Ponzal hurried to the car he had been occupying and grabbed his coat. He started in a westerly direction and is supposed to have followed the C.P.R. in the direction of St. Thomas. The fact that the Italians in the party have very little knowledge of the English language and that they make no apparent efforts to render assistance have placed the police at a disadvantage in setting out the details in connection with the killing. A twin brother of the dead man was a witness of the affair and he was almost frantic from grief. It appears that the quarrel was precipitated by a game which resembles "Duck on the rock." This game was being played for money, and Ponzal, the one who hurled the stone, had a coin which he kept in his pocket. The ownership of a coin was probably the root of the quarrel. The scene of the murder is a point about 250 yards west of the C.P.R. depot. The murdered man was 23 years of age and married. His family are in Italy and he had intended leaving in a week's time to join them. Ponzal is described as being 23 or 30 years of age, 5 feet 11 inches or 6 feet in height. He wore a dark brown or black coat, blue overalls, faded, and a soft felt hat.

MAY WIN ON RECOUNT.

R. L. Borden Hopeful for Two More in Nova Scotia.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—(Special).—R. L. Borden, M.P., for Halifax and Carleton, arrived in the city to-day and left for Ottawa in the evening. While at the Windsor he was welcomed by a number of friends and congratulated upon his splendid victory in Halifax, which he declared was a true expression of the people's will in that constituency. He stated that the Conservative organization was so complete that the government party was prevented from spending money in any great amount. He also said that the majorities both in Cape Breton North and in Antigonish against the opposition candidates are so small that a recount may change the situation and give them to the Conservative party.

MORE VOTERS ARRESTED.

Two Men Charged With Aiding Impersonations at Dexter Poll.

PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 1.—(Special).—Two more arrests have been made in connection with alleged illegal voting at the Dexter poll on Saturday. Frank Pacifico, Saturday afternoon H. Hogarth, and a man named Armstrong were arrested and given bail. They were charged with aiding and abetting in impersonations that were charged against a number of voters. It is charged that some men at the polls voted six or seven times. The Liberals claim that it was an attempt made to throw the election in case Combes was elected by a small majority. It is charged that whiskey was freely used at the polls. More arrests, it is said, will be made this week in connection with alleged crooked work at other polls.

TO BUY OUT CABLE LINES

Or Land Lines and Marconi May Be Combined.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable).—LONDON, Nov. 1.—Henniker Heaton announces a meeting in support of a bill which would give the government to hold a conference with the postmaster-general with a view to buying out existing cables. It is stated that the object of the bill is to be attained by extending the land systems in conjunction with Marconi.

BORDEN RETURNS TO CAPITAL.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(Special).—Hon. R. L. Borden arrived in the city from Halifax and the Maritime Provinces late this evening. But for the fact that it was Sunday local Conservatives would have organized a demonstration in his honor. On Saturday night Hon. C. Sifton and J. C. Turill arrived from the west.

The Toronto World.

TWELVE PAGES—MONDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 2 1908—TWELVE PAGES

LOOKS LIKE TAFT SO EXPERTS AGREE

But Forecasts Have Been Made Before, and Democratic National Chairman Has a Big One of His Own.

CHAIRMAN MACK (Dem.): "A landslide for Bryan. The party is reunited and victory is in the air. He will have 333 votes, made up of the solid south with 169 votes, including Maryland and Delaware, Colorado 5, Connecticut 7, New York 39, Kansas 10, New Jersey 12, North Dakota 4, Oregon 4, Rhode Island 4, West Virginia 7, Wisconsin 13, Wyoming 3, Indiana 15, Idaho 3, Montana 3, Ohio 23, Nebraska 8, South Dakota 4. Total, 164. California and Illinois 1 place in the doubtful column, but the chances are extremely in favor of their being won."

CHAIRMAN HITCHCOCK (Rep.): "We will have 325 electoral votes."

CANDIDATE TAFT: "The State of New York is the most Republican part of the United States. There is every indication, thru that part of the state above the Bronx, that there will be a majority of the Republican ticket, nearly equal to that of Mr. Roosevelt four years ago. The Democratic majority in the City of New York will probably not exceed 70,000 votes. This will be overcome by the Republican vote above the Bronx with such overwhelming force as to give the Republican ticket in the Empire State a clear majority of from 100,000 and upward."

CANDIDATE BRYAN: "While I think that the result is more certain in some states than in others, I do not want to discourage those in less certain states by making discriminations. I believe that we shall have votes to spare in the electoral college and a considerable majority of the popular vote."

CHANCELLOR WOULD RESIGN OVER INDISCREET INTERVIEW OF EMPEROR—BRITAIN SCENTS A PLOT.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—According to The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, Prince von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, Saturday offered his resignation to Emperor William in consequence of the publication in London of the interview with his majesty, for which the prince took responsibility. The emperor would not accept the chancellor's resignation and at the same time permitted Prince von Buelow to publish a full explanation, so as to meet the unjustifiable attacks that have been made upon his majesty. It was announced conclusively at the foreign office last night that the chancellor would remain in office. Prince von Buelow's explanation in The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung follows:

The Prince's Explanation. "A great portion of the foreign and internal press publishes criticisms directed against his majesty relative to the article in The London Daily Telegraph. These criticisms are founded on the assumption that the emperor permitted the publication of the article without the previous knowledge of the government authorities, responsible for the imperial policy. This assumption is unfounded. His majesty received from a private Englishman, with a request that he be permitted to publish in his manuscript of an article in which a series of conversations between the emperor and several English personalities, held at the Windsor, were put together. The reason given for the request was in order to make known his majesty's utterance to the largest possible number of English readers, thus serving to improve Anglo-German relations. The emperor forwarded the manuscript to the foreign office with a note requesting careful scrutiny. The foreign office did not report anything objectionable in the contents, and publication thereupon followed. "When the chancellor, as a result of the publication in The Daily Telegraph, became aware of the contents of this manuscript, he explained to the emperor that he personally had not read it, and that had he done so he would have hesitated and advised against its publication. "He holds himself alone responsible and he desires to protect the officials under him. As the time he offered to resign, but the emperor would not accept his resignation. On publication of the article, the emperor would be in a position to meet unjustifiable attacks on the person of the emperor. Emperor William had tea Saturday afternoon with Chancellor von Buelow at the prince's residence, and had a long conference with the prince. "Just How It Happened. All the Radical, Liberal and Socialist journals, through the event to urge upon the country a demand for a ministry responsible to the parliament and the people, instead of the continuance of ministerial responsibility to the crown alone. "In addition to the semi-official accounts already published, it is learned that the emperor handed the manuscript of the interview, which appeared in The London Daily Telegraph and

WILL SUPPORT VOTES FOR WOMEN.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(Special).—A. E. Frupp, K.C., M.L.A., announced a meeting in support of a bill which would give the government to hold a conference with the postmaster-general with a view to buying out existing cables. It is stated that the object of the bill is to be attained by extending the land systems in conjunction with Marconi.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(Special).

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(Special).—Hon. R. L. Borden arrived in the city from Halifax and the Maritime Provinces late this evening. But for the fact that it was Sunday local Conservatives would have organized a demonstration in his honor. On Saturday night Hon. C. Sifton and J. C. Turill arrived from the west.

A SOCIAL FAVORITE

MISS CANADA: Now, Wilfrid, I positively will not have all this company in the kitchen.

PARADE A TRAIL OF BROKEN GLASS

Hoodlums in Wake of Students Blamed for Considerable Damage to Windows, But No Arrests Are Made.

Not students but just plain rowdies were responsible for much noise and the breaking of a deal of glass Halloween. From all over the city they gathered downtown crowds of the lovers of disorder and the idly curious. About 10 o'clock a party of some 300 students set out from the Varsity grounds for a street demonstration. When time went on and the students appeared to be peacefully, noisily, inclined, and failed to provide the desired amount of fuss, this bunch got together about 100 strong in the rear of the student body and paraded the downtown streets and also visited the ward. So long as they were in the lighted district they confined themselves to bedlam, but when they hit the dark places stones few and much glass was demolished. A visit to the Union Station to meet students coming by train at about 10:30 opened the ball, with a broken pane in the Walker House and one in the Dominion Express Company's office in Station-street. Then the crowd proceeded to Yonge-street and windows were broken in numbers 40, 57, 143, 151, 157, 175, 181, 183 and 185. From there the crowd proceeded to Yonge-street and on the way a stone went thru Carrick's bakeshop window at Richmond and Bay-streets. Other windows along the line of march suffered. It was north of Yonge-street, however, that the chief damage was done, and here, too, it was the rear guard of rowdies following the students, and scattered groups of hoodlums, who did the damage. Damage on Yonge Street. On Yonge-street windows were broken at numbers 138, 248, 254. Spenser, the taxidermist at 378, a large plate glass front; 370; Lugsdin, furrier at 400, a large plate glass front; Douglas, tobacconist, at 402, two large plate glass fronts; 399, 429 and 435, on Elizabeth-street few panes were left at the following numbers: 68, 74, 76, 80, 86, 91, 95, 98, 131, 142, 211, 216, 220, 234, 242, 243, 246 and 255; on Elm-street, numbers 79, 91, 109, 102, 115 and 118; on Centre-avenue, 136, 170, 172, 177 and at 27 five lights were broken; on Hayter-street 72 and 80; on Louis-street number 58; on University-avenue, 309 lost four lights; on Agnes-street, 51, 92, 88 and 90 lost each one or more lights; on Christopher-street, number 21; on Teraulay, numbers 34 and 100; on Shuter-street, 31 and 41. In addition to these four windows were broken in the Syrian Church at Victoria and Shuter-streets. A false alarm of fire was also turned on from box 73 at Agnes and Elizabeth-streets at 3 o'clock in the morning. This crowd was finally broken up

"MEDS" SPOIL DANCE BY TREATING BEAUX TO DAUB OF BLACK

Exciting Times in Varsity Grounds—Young Ladies Deprived of Their Escorts and Later Are Comically Mauled.

Special police protection was promised the lady "grads" who got up the halloween and leap year dance in the university gym, Saturday night, but if there was any special protection it wasn't so you could notice. There was one policeman (a university cop) diligently patrolling the slat walk in front of the gymnasium steps, who, with every group of arrivals, was having been committed some place where he wasn't. About every second maid appeared without an escort, having lost her beau en route, while about every third girl was accompanied by a grotesque looking individual whose face had been massaged with shoe lapping and whose hair had been shampooed with shoemakers' wax. These decorative touches had been bestowed by rampant "Meds," who were as little awed by the appearance of a white shirt front as a tramp cat would be by a juicy sardine can. At the north, west and east entrances to Varsity lawn squadrons of Meds, were ambushed, bent upon spoiling the good looks of everybody who brought a girlfriend. Most of the casualties occurred at the Hoskin-avenue gate whence the greatest number of the attached ladies approached. The marauders' modus operandi was to first seize upon the girl and rush her thru the gate in order that she might be spared the pain of witnessing her companion's initiation. After a brief ceremony, that sounded like a dog-fight, she would be approached in the gloom by an odd looking object that apologized for letting his temper get the best of him, but he simply couldn't stand for her being discourteously treated, and so had stayed behind to lay a few of them out—and he certainly looked the part. "Was the Day. All the datin'ness that had characterized his immaculate neck-tie had van-

STANDARD OIL'S GRIP ON THE PRESS

W. R. Hearst Reads Some Surprising Letters Showing How Journals Are Systematically Subsidized.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—W. R. Hearst brought the campaign of the independent party to a close in Carnegie Hall last night by reading letters which revealed an attempt of the Standard Oil Co. to shape public opinion. The reading of the letters and Mr. Hearst's comments thereon were heard by a large audience, which cheered the telling points brought out by the speaker. "I have shown heretofore," said Mr. Hearst, "the peculiar interest of the Standard Oil Co. in certain congressmen. I have shown their interest in certain attorney-generals and judges. I intend to show that the Standard Oil Co. takes a similar interest in newspapers and magazines, and lecturers and other institutions and individuals that influence public sentiment."

Mr. Hearst read the following letter: "26 Broadway, Oct. 10, 1902. "Dear Sir,—Responding to your favor of the 5th inst., I find that it is $4 a year. Consequently Mr. Archibald was either subsidizing 'The Manufacturers' Record' or he was subsidizing for 75 years. There is no mention of any advertising done by 'The Manufacturers' Record' or any legitimate newspaper business performed. The $300 is distinctly a subsidy. I see that it is definitely stated as a year's subscription, so that there is no possibility of its being anything but a year's subscription. $2000 to Farm Magazine. "The Standard Oil Co. is a liberal subscriber of this sort, and the object of these subsidies is to induce these publications to influence public sentiment in favor of Standard Oil, as the following letter will show: "26 Broadway, Dec. 28, 1901. "Mr. Thomas S. Lee, care of Buck & Pratt, Room 1203, 27 William-street, city: "Dear Mr. Grasty,—I have your favor of yesterday and beg to return herewith a telegram from Mr. Edmonds to you. We are willing to continue the subscription of $500 to 'The Manufacturers' Record' for another year, provided that you make the same as they have been this year. We do not doubt that the influence of your publications thruout the south is of the most helpful character. "With good wishes, I am very truly yours, "John D. Archibald."

"The Standard Oil Co. not only endeavors to influence public sentiment thru magazines and newspapers, but it subsidizes teachers and lecturers to 'educate' the public in the interest of the Standard Oil. The following letter is an example in point: "26 Broadway, "Professor George Gunton, 41 Union Square, city: "My Dear Professor,—Responding to your favor it gives me pleasure to inclose you herewith certificate of deposit to your favor for $500 as an additional contribution to that agreed upon and to aid you in your most excellent work. I most earnestly hope that the same will open for an enlarged scope, as you anticipate. "Yours very truly, "John D. Archibald."

"It would seem likely from this letter, and from the mention of an additional contribution of $5000, that the total contribution to this professor was $10,000. Applying the same rule as heretofore, and learning that admission to the professor's lectures is 50 cents, we must conclude that Mr. Archibald was either subsidizing the professor to teach the public to love the Standard Oil, or he was purchasing a season ticket for 20,000 performances. "In the following letter is the mention of a certificate of deposit sent to the editor of a daily newspaper: "26 Broadway, Jan. 17, 1899. "Hon. W. A. Magee, Pittsburg Times, Pittsburg, Pa. "Dear Sir,—As per understanding, herewith enclosed find certificate of deposit to your order for $1250, the receipt of which kindly acknowledge. "Truly yours, "John D. Archibald."

"A Congressman's Letter. "We have seen heretofore that the Standard Oil Co. endeavor to influence magazines, newspapers, lecturers, and every medium of publicity for their political and financial purposes. "I will now read a letter which indicated a still wider and more comprehensive plan, and one of even greater danger to the free press, which are the cornerstones of our republic. The letter is from the Standard Oil Co.'s congressional spy, Joseph C. Sibley. It is written: "WASHINGTON, March 7, 1905. "My Dear Mr. A.—The illness of a member of my family has prevented my coming to New York. Senator B— wants to have some over with me. I think he will go anyway, as he has business there. I had a conversation with an important official yesterday, and he

STANDARD OIL'S GRIP ON THE PRESS

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—W. R. Hearst brought the campaign of the independent party to a close in Carnegie Hall last night by reading letters which revealed an attempt of the Standard Oil Co. to shape public opinion. The reading of the letters and Mr. Hearst's comments thereon were heard by a large audience, which cheered the telling points brought out by the speaker. "I have shown heretofore," said Mr. Hearst, "the peculiar interest of the Standard Oil Co. in certain congressmen. I have shown their interest in certain attorney-generals and judges. I intend to show that the Standard Oil Co. takes a similar interest in newspapers and magazines, and lecturers and other institutions and individuals that influence public sentiment."

Mr. Hearst read the following letter: "26 Broadway, Oct. 10, 1902. "Dear Sir,—Responding to your favor of the 5th inst., I find that it is $4 a year. Consequently Mr. Archibald was either subsidizing 'The Manufacturers' Record' or he was subsidizing for 75 years. There is no mention of any advertising done by 'The Manufacturers' Record' or any legitimate newspaper business performed. The $300 is distinctly a subsidy. I see that it is definitely stated as a year's subscription, so that there is no possibility of its being anything but a year's subscription. $2000 to Farm Magazine. "The Standard Oil Co. is a liberal subscriber of this sort, and the object of these subsidies is to induce these publications to influence public sentiment in favor of Standard Oil, as the following letter will show: "26 Broadway, Dec. 28, 1901. "Mr. Thomas S. Lee, care of Buck & Pratt, Room 1203, 27 William-street, city: "Dear Mr. Grasty,—I have your favor of yesterday and beg to return herewith a telegram from Mr. Edmonds to you. We are willing to continue the subscription of $500 to 'The Manufacturers' Record' for another year, provided that you make the same as they have been this year. We do not doubt that the influence of your publications thruout the south is of the most helpful character. "With good wishes, I am very truly yours, "John D. Archibald."

"The Standard Oil Co. not only endeavors to influence public sentiment thru magazines and newspapers, but it subsidizes teachers and lecturers to 'educate' the public in the interest of the Standard Oil. The following letter is an example in point: "26 Broadway, "Professor George Gunton, 41 Union Square, city: "My Dear Professor,—Responding to your favor it gives me pleasure to inclose you herewith certificate of deposit to your favor for $500 as an additional contribution to that agreed upon and to aid you in your most excellent work. I most earnestly hope that the same will open for an enlarged scope, as you anticipate. "Yours very truly, "John D. Archibald."

"It would seem likely from this letter, and from the mention of an additional contribution of $5000, that the total contribution to this professor was $10,000. Applying the same rule as heretofore, and learning that admission to the professor's lectures is 50 cents, we must conclude that Mr. Archibald was either subsidizing the professor to teach the public to love the Standard Oil, or he was purchasing a season ticket for 20,000 performances. "In the following letter is the mention of a certificate of deposit sent to the editor of a daily newspaper: "26 Broadway, Jan. 17, 1899. "Hon. W. A. Magee, Pittsburg Times, Pittsburg, Pa. "Dear Sir,—As per understanding, herewith enclosed find certificate of deposit to your order for $1250, the receipt of which kindly acknowledge. "Truly yours, "John D. Archibald."

"A Congressman's Letter. "We have seen heretofore that the Standard Oil Co. endeavor to influence magazines, newspapers, lecturers, and every medium of publicity for their political and financial purposes. "I will now read a letter which indicated a still wider and more comprehensive plan, and one of even greater danger to the free press, which are the cornerstones of our republic. The letter is from the Standard Oil Co.'s congressional spy, Joseph C. Sibley. It is written: "WASHINGTON, March 7, 1905. "My Dear Mr. A.—The illness of a member of my family has prevented my coming to New York. Senator B— wants to have some over with me. I think he will go anyway, as he has business there. I had a conversation with an important official yesterday, and he

STANDARD OIL'S GRIP ON THE PRESS

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—W. R. Hearst brought the campaign of the independent party to a close in Carnegie Hall last night by reading letters which revealed an attempt of the Standard Oil Co. to shape public opinion. The reading of the letters and Mr. Hearst's comments thereon were heard by a large audience, which cheered the telling points brought out by the speaker. "I have shown heretofore," said Mr. Hearst, "the peculiar interest of the Standard Oil Co. in certain congressmen. I have shown their interest in certain attorney-generals and judges. I intend to show that the Standard Oil Co. takes a similar interest in newspapers and magazines, and lecturers and other institutions and individuals that influence public sentiment."

Mr. Hearst read the following letter: "26 Broadway, Oct. 10, 1902. "Dear Sir,—Responding to your favor of the 5th inst., I find that it is $4 a year. Consequently Mr. Archibald was either subsidizing 'The Manufacturers' Record' or he was subsidizing for 75 years. There is no mention of any advertising done by 'The Manufacturers' Record' or any legitimate newspaper business performed. The $300 is distinctly a subsidy. I see that it is definitely stated as a year's subscription, so that there is no possibility of its being anything but a year's subscription. $2000 to Farm Magazine. "The Standard Oil Co. is a liberal subscriber of this sort, and the object of these subsidies is to induce these publications to influence public sentiment in favor of Standard Oil, as the following letter will show: "26 Broadway, Dec. 28, 1901. "Mr. Thomas S. Lee, care of Buck & Pratt, Room 1203, 27 William-street, city: "Dear Mr. Grasty,—I have your favor of yesterday and beg to return herewith a telegram from Mr. Edmonds to you. We are willing to continue the subscription of $500 to 'The Manufacturers' Record' for another year, provided that you make the same as they have been this year. We do not doubt that the influence of your publications thruout the south is of the most helpful character. "With good wishes, I am very truly yours, "John D. Archibald."

"The Standard Oil Co. not only endeavors to influence public sentiment thru magazines and newspapers, but it subsidizes teachers and lecturers to 'educate' the public in the interest of the Standard Oil. The following letter is an example in point: "26 Broadway, "Professor George Gunton, 41 Union Square, city: "My Dear Professor,—Responding to your favor it gives me pleasure to inclose you herewith certificate of deposit to your order for $500 as an additional contribution to that agreed upon and to aid you in your most excellent work. I most earnestly hope that the same will open for an enlarged scope, as you anticipate. "Yours very truly, "John D. Archibald."

"It would seem likely from this letter, and from the mention of an additional contribution of $5000, that the total contribution to this professor was $10,000. Applying the same rule as heretofore, and learning that admission to the professor's lectures is 50 cents, we must conclude that Mr. Archibald was either subsidizing the professor to teach the public to love the Standard Oil, or he was purchasing a season ticket for 20,000 performances. "In the following letter is the mention of a certificate of deposit sent to the editor of a daily newspaper: "26 Broadway, Jan. 17, 1899. "Hon. W. A. Magee, Pittsburg Times, Pittsburg, Pa. "Dear Sir,—As per understanding, herewith enclosed find certificate of deposit to your order for $1250, the receipt of which kindly acknowledge. "Truly yours, "John D. Archibald."

"A Congressman's Letter. "We have seen heretofore that the Standard Oil Co. endeavor to influence magazines, newspapers, lecturers, and every medium of publicity for their political and financial purposes. "I will now read a letter which indicated a still wider and more comprehensive plan, and one of even greater danger to the free press, which are the cornerstones of our republic. The letter is from the Standard Oil Co.'s congressional spy, Joseph C. Sibley. It is written: "WASHINGTON, March 7, 1905. "My Dear Mr. A.—The illness of a member of my family has prevented my coming to New York. Senator B— wants to have some over with me. I think he will go anyway, as he has business there. I had a conversation with an important official yesterday, and he