1. In (a) 1974 (b) 1975 (c) 1976 was the government approached by diplomatic representatives of foreign countries in Canada on behalf of their nationals requesting assistance in their removal and/or their dependants from orders such as (i) the Apostles of Infinite Love (ii) the Church of Scientology (iii) Hari Krishna (iv) similar groups and, if so, how many times and what were the names of the Embassies and High Commissions?

2. In each case (a) how many individuals and what sects were involved (b) what action was taken by the Departments of External Affairs and Manpower and Immigration?

3. How many of the individuals concerned are in the country on a (a) visa (b) student visa and, in each case, how many times has the visa been renewed and for what reason?

Mr. Ralph E. Goodale (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): I am informed by the Departments of External Affairs and Employment and Immigration as follows: 1. Only the Embassy of Belgium approached the Department of External Affairs in September 1976 to request assistance for the return of one of its nationals. The Embassy had been asked for help by the parents of the individual.

Order Paper Questions

2. (a) One, the Order of the Apostles of Infinite Love; (b) On being informed by the Department of Manpower and Immigration that the status in Canada of the Belgian person concerned was in accordance with the Immigration requirements and since the individual was of legal age, the Department of External Affairs notified the Belgian Embassy that no intervention was possible to return the person to Belgium.

3. (a) and (b) Citizens of Belgium do not require visas to visit Canada.

PRIME MINISTER'S TRIPS

Question No. 2,728—Mr. Cossitt:

1. What is a list of all flights taken by the Prime Minister on government aircraft in the recent by-election campaigns, including points of departure and arrival, dates and times, the exact cost of each flight including flying time, waiting time, fuel and wages of the crew?

2. What was the total of all expenses incurred for such flights?

3. Was the Liberal Party billed for such flights and, if so (a) on what date (b) in what amount and to whom was the bill sent (c) on what date was it paid and who was the cheque made payable to and who signed the cheque?

4. Did the Prime Minister decide to have the Liberal Party pay for such flights and, if so, was the decision made before or immediately after the Honourable Member for Leeds raised the matter in the House on May 31, 1977?

Mr. Ralph E. Goodale (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): 1. See replies to questions 29 and 30 answered today.

2 to 4. See reply to question 2,881 answered today.

MR. ROBERT KINGSLEY

Question No. 2,729—Mr. Cossitt:

Has Mr. Robert Kingsley, Canada Manpower Regional Manager of Operations, stationed in Ottawa, in any way whatsoever been relieved of his title, duties etc. and, if so (a) was he suspended or transferred to another position or dismissed on or about the end of May, 1977 (b) what are the reasons for any changes made in connection with his employment and did they have anything to do with claims made by his wife and son for unemployment insurance to which they were not entitled (c) was any change made in his status as a result of UIC or RCMP investigations into any misuse of the UIC computer in Montreal at the time Mr. Kingsley was Regional Manager of the UIC Pay Centre in that city?

Hon. Bud Cullen (Minister of Employment and Immigration): Mr. Kingsley has assumed a temporary assignment as a member of a project group responsible for developing a plan for the relocation of the national headquarters offices of the Unemployment Insurance Commission and the Department of Manpower and Immigration. (a) No. (b) Mr. Kingsley was selected as a member of the project group on the basis of his experience and knowledge of the operations and programs of both the Unemployment Insurance Commission and the Department of Manpower and Immigration, and of the logistical factors affecting a major relocation of staff. (c) No.
