"Ninety per cent. of the young ladie who come to me to be married do so to cover up their own shame, and to hide the disgrace that has followed their sin. This is proven by their confession to me, and they ask to have their licenses dated back some times six months. I perform the marriag to save the girl. Of course I do not date back the certificate."

Rev. W. H. Snelgrove says: "To the shame and discredit of the American social system, girls come to Windsor to have their marriages per-formed to hide their disgrace. Every requirement of the law is fulfilled. The person securing the license must take oath on the Bible that the girl is over 18, and there is no other alternative bu; to issue the license and marry them."
