The order of expulsion, however, is still to the condenses the c afre the well-known New Tork singing trio Heckman, Shaw and Campbell will make their bow at the holiday matine on Monday and sing throughout the week. These ladies and gentleman are reputed to be one of the finest classical and popular singing combinations on the vaudeville stage and come to St. John direct from one of the leading New York houses. They will be heard at 3.30 Monday afternoon and at 8.80 and 9.45 in the evening.

The holiday offerings in film include Wallace Reid and Myrtle Steadman in a melodramatic love-story entitled "A Prison Without Walls." This is one of Lasky-Paramount's latest releases and bristles with excitement and heart interest throughout. There will also be the patriotic pictures contained in Pathe's British Gazette.

Doors will be opened at 1.30 and 6.30 and the shows will commence at 20'clock, 3.45, 7 and 8.45. As per usual children will be charged a dime for public holiday admission but otherwise the usual prices will rule. From now out the Imperial will not have any increased prices during the war, no matter what the attraction may be.
