

Premier Saves Woman's Life

Moncton, N. B., Oct. 25.—Sir Robert Borden passed through Moncton this afternoon on his way from Grand Pre to Ottawa. At the railway station here he saved the life of a woman passenger on the Ocean Limited. She was knocked down in the crowd and was rolling under the car when rescued by the premier.

French Put Bulgars To Rout On Saturday

London, Oct. 25.—French troops routed three divisions of Bulgarians on Saturday on the front of Gradek-Volodno-Rabrov, in southeastern Serbia, according to a despatch filed at Saloniki on October 24 to the Havas News Agency. The Bulgarian forces were decimated.

London, Oct. 25.—Up to noon today the Serbian legation received no confirmation of the Bulgarian claim to the capture of Uakup.

Saloniki, Oct. 24.—French troops are following up their victory of last Friday and are now threatening Strumitsa, Bulgaria, to which place the Bulgarians retired in disorder. The Bulgarians suffered heavily in the recent engagement, from the fire of French three-inch guns.

Paris, Oct. 25.—Bulgarian troops engaged with the French on Friday were subject to a heavy fire from the French artillery, and suffered heavy losses. The losses of the French amount to ten killed and a few score wounded.

THE GERMAN CHECKED

Paris, Oct. 25.—A despatch filed yesterday at Athens, says that the Austro-German offensive in Serbia has been brought to a standstill on the entire northern front, according to advices received at Athens from Nish. South of Pozarevac the Serbians retired a few miles to stronger positions.

ST. JOHN SOLDIERS WRITE FROM DARDANELLES AND WEST

Charles Lewis of the medical corps with the Ammunition Column under Lt. Col. Harrison, writes to Hilton Crowley from France, as follows:— "I wish you could have been in London with me. I would like to visit in peace time when the lights are again on. We are now in France and I have been up to the firing line with our officer commanding and the medical officer. It was very interesting. We saw one town all blown to pieces by German guns. I talked with several boys in the trenches, including Robert E. Knowles and Sidney Marwood. I wish you could see us all here. Ray Pennington is writing in our shack with a lantern between us, casting 'rays' all around. Tell me of the fellows to get busy and drop me a line, for news is sweet, believe me."

That the 26th is ready for anything that comes their way is indicated by the tone of a letter received from Private J. F. Hogan, by his sister. He says: "We had a week in the trenches and enjoyed every minute of it. The boys were not a bit nervous and they all seem to like the life. They acted just like the fellows who have been in the trenches for a year. I think we have the best lot of fellows in the whole brigade; nothing seems to worry them. We had a couple of fellows wounded but their wounds were only slight. We are leaving here tonight for another week in the trenches. Private Hogan also says that he has been given a coat sweater but suggests that a chamolus vest would come in handy for cold nights in the trenches. Another Brother Joins—Albert H. Ramsey, writing from Kingston, Ont., to his sister, Mrs. William McGorman, 164 Britain street, said he had joined the artillery as a driver, and will soon leave for the front. He is brother of William Ramsey, of the 99th battalion now fighting in France. He was formerly a member of the 62nd regiment of this city under Captain Keefe. From Farrier Sergeant Kennedy—A letter received by Mrs. Wm. P. Logan, West St. John, from her father, Farrier Sergeant Bernard Kennedy, now on the firing line in France, is dated Oct. 10. He writes:— "Dear Daughter—Just a line to let you know am still alive and in the best of health; in fact, never felt so well in my life. Please send me more tobacco, as the tobacco over here is rank. I am quite busy. I have all the staff officers' horses to shoe. I would like to be remembered to all my friends at home, especially to F. S. Walker, S. Ross and J. Walters. Write soon. From your loving father, B. KENNEDY."

HUNDRED MEN FOR THE 104TH ON NEXT THURSDAY

That's The Slogan For A Big Demonstration

Col. Geo. W. Fowler Will Be Here Himself—Mounted Processions and Other Features Being Arranged

The general recruiting committee is meeting this afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms to discuss arrangements for the monster inaugural to be held on Thursday evening of this week in the big rink, thus launching the campaign in behalf of Col. Fowler's crack 104th Regiment. Whatever former efforts of this kind have been, it is confidently expected that this latest rally will hang up a new record in recruits and a new mark as to enthusiasm.

Four brass bands will escort the populace from each point of the compass—from the Haymarket square district, from South End, from Carleton by way of the ferry boat and from North End. These great streams of citizens will converge at the place of meeting and here the colonel of the new regiment himself, will address the throng. Col. George W. Fowler, M. P., is one of New Brunswick's favored sons as to popularity. Even in days of sharp political strife his bitterest opponents appreciate him for his good fellowship. Evidently the same opinion is held elsewhere throughout the province, for the 14th Regiment gives early evidence of being quickly recruited.

Colonel Fowler is going to tell the men of St. John on next Thursday just what his plans are for the 104th. He expects to get the finest fellows out of our locality and thus create a battalion of which this Loyalist district may feel proud. He promises that at next Thursday night's meeting final medical examination will be made of all men who volunteer. In other words, there will be no preliminary doctor business to be followed by a more searching examination at the place of mobilization. Each and every man offering himself for enlistment on the night of the big meeting will know before he leaves the building whether or not he is physically fit to don the khaki.

Serg. Knight, wounded orator, who so electrified St. John with his speech a few weeks ago, will also be on the platform with Col. Fowler. In fact the sergeant is going to speak in St. John for a time soon. In addition to the remarks of these two prominent soldiers, there will be band selections and other

CANADIAN CASUALTIES

There Are 127 Officers in the List of Dead So Far

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The Canadian casualties up to October 16 aggregate 15,187. A hundred and twenty-seven officers are dead, of whom ninety-four were killed in action, while the dead from the ranks aggregate 2,460. The list of wounded and ill includes all who have passed through the field hospitals, and even if they were there but a day, they appear on the record. But a third of these wounded have been able to return to their regiments. Of the remainder, others return after a period of convalescence. The number of men permanently disabled is comparatively small.

Praise For Artillery

Mrs. D. W. Kyle, of Moncton, is in receipt of a letter from her son, written October 2. Driver Kyle states that he is still with Capt. McKee, and that they had been removed back to Belgium again from France. During some recent fighting they had been attached to an Imperial Regiment, but were glad to get back with their own boys again. The 3rd Artillery Brigade received many compliments on their marksmanship in the battle which they recently passed through. In fact, members of the Imperial Regiment stated that their shooting was the best they had ever had over them. They had only two slight casualties during the battle. Driver Kyle stated that both himself and Capt. McKee were well, but very busy.

A Prisoner in Germany

Mrs. Wells, of Sackville, has received the following letter from her son, Douglas, now a prisoner in Germany: "One of my wounds has healed up, but there are still four more left, so I shall be in the hospital for some time yet. It is the wound where the piece of shell went into my arm that is healed. The cut from the operation is still open, but doing well, likewise the two operation cuts in my leg, but the wound itself is very slow. Of course, it was a pretty large wound, but time will cure that also, I guess."

Mrs. Mary A. Randall, widow of Alfred Randall, died in Somerville, Mass., on Wednesday. Four daughters remain. They are Mrs. T. W. Parker of Somerville, Mass.; Mrs. Howard Merrill, of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. F. C. Moulton, of Portland, Mass.; and Mrs. Ernest Gowers, of Portland, Me. Two surviving sisters are Mrs. Alex. Dingee and Mrs. J. D. Brewer, of Houlton.

Miss Alice Patterson, only daughter of John W. Patterson, deputy crown land surveyor, and Mrs. Patterson, died at her home near Florenceville on Thursday. She is survived by her aged father, her mother and two brothers, Jack E. J. Patterson, C. E., and Harry Patterson, C. E.

DISPLEASURE

HERE OVER THE 64TH MATTER

Halfax To Have Same 3,500 Men During Winter

Practically All Members of Siege Battery Now at Island—More Men For the 104th—Presentations

The announcement that the 64th Battalion was to be stationed at Halifax has caused resentment among merchants and the general body of citizens. Halifax will have upwards of 3,500 men in uniform there this winter which means at a low calculation $100,000 sent there monthly in pay-checks alone aside from supplies and incidentals.

Mobilized Today

Almost every man of the siege battery has reported for duty at Partridge Island. The majority came on towards the last of last week, but many reported today. All are now quartered comfortably in the barracks on the island. They are a particularly fine lot of men. Uniforms are being given out this week and in a day or two the unit will be well equipped. A programme of training will be carried out so as to accustom the recruits to the soldier's life, but it is not expected to be so long as the understanding is that they will soon be going overseas.

Recruits Today

The roll of the 104th is swelling each day and a good class of men signing. On the noon train today from Fredericton some thirty-two men arrived in the city, many of whom were for the infantry battalion, but the majority for the siege battery. They were given a hearty send off at the capital this morning. Among their number was Edward Joseph DeLade, son of Michael DeLade of this city, who is with the 104th.

Spicing the Honor Roll

Spicing the honor roll at the Mill street recruiting offices today were J. Spynay Barlow, of Baywater, Wm. McKean and E. Bates Hapley, St. John, Napoleon Joseph Landry, Gardner, Me., (Canadian parentage), and Alvis Ira Henderson, Golden Grove. All were for the siege battery.

Consolidated Rubber Co., Ltd.

The travelling staff of the Consolidated Rubber Co., Ltd., reported for duty at Partridge Island with the siege battery.

Presentations

Several of the young men who have volunteered for service with the siege battery have been honored before going on duty at Partridge Island with presentations from their friends. In the J. C. R. A. office this morning James J. Harrison was the recipient of a military wrist watch from his associates. The Rev. Canon Smithers and Mrs. Margaret Quinn are to leave tonight for Boston where they will spend the winter.

Making Home More Cheerful

When Mother feels good the family is happy, but when Mother is tired, cross and nervous, nothing seems quite right in the home.

Eye-strain is responsible for many headaches, much nervousness and exhaustion women suffer from, and usually the eyes are not suspected as the cause of the strain on general health. Often there is severe eye-strain when apparently the sight is good.

Correctly fitted glasses will end the eye-strain, and many a home would be more cheerful if Mother wore glasses made especially for her.

Sharp's optometrists can detect eye-strain if it exists, and prescribe the right glasses to correct it. If you squint, frown, have headaches or are nervous, consult Sharp's optometrists.
