Plans Advance Well for Times-Star, Telegraph-Journal Outing

There will be a big time on next Saturday afternoon for the newsboys of The Times-Star and The Teleraph-Journal, when they will be given through the courtesy of Commissioner R. W. Wigmore of the Water and Sewerage Department, the outing will be held on the grounds at Lake Robertheld on the grounds at Lake Roberton, on the Loch Lomond road. The boys, to the number of some

The boys, to the number of some 400, will be conveyed there in large auto trucks, while other similar conveyances will transport bounteous supplies for the delight of the lads when supper time comes, and also will take out equipment for the providing of games. Members of The Times-Star and The Telegraph-Journal staffs will go out in large number, representing all the branches of the newspaper service, to supervise the outing and take their share in providing a good time for the newsies.

ALL WHILL ADMANGED

ALL WELL ADVANCED

Committees covering all phases of the outing have been at work for some weeks organizing the event. It takes a good deal of preparation to easure that all shall run smoothly, and to this end the staff workers have been devoting energetic effort. Everything is well advanced now, and the committees have felt greatly encouraged by the good support given them by merchants and others in preparing to make a big afternoon for the lads. In addition to the bounteous supper to be served, there will be a regularly organized series of sporting events, including baseball and races. There are ganized series of sporting events, including baseball and races. There are some very desirable prizes to be won by the competitors.

If the weather man is unkindly, the picnic will be an indoor one, and will be given in the Armories, the use of which building has been kindly authorized by the military authorities.
