Montreal, Peb. 10—Inspection of trains between Ottawa points and the province of Quebec has its little amenities and one of these occurred today when the vice-regal car bearing a distinguished party from Ottawa to St. John was visited by a vaccination official. At first the porter who guards the vice-regal portals refused him admittance but the passengers being notified it appeared that the Dowager Countess of Minto, Miss Joan Cobbold and Lord Richard Nevill had the necessary documents and were duly certified as legally entitled to travel.

The party are on their way to board the Empress of Britain which is sailing from St. John to England.

Was admited the charge, the police say. The guns and masks with which the prisoners were equipped when the hold-place on the road between Moncton and Sunny Brae. The prisoners are also charged with breaking into a store in the city on the night of Feb. 8.
