SEE ELECTIONS IN ENGLAND POSSIBLE

Thus is Read Premier Asquith's Home Rule Question To Bonar Law

London, Jan. 2.—A cable to the Times from London says: Before the vote on the home rule bill, Mr. Asquith put a question to the opposition leader, which left open the possibility of a general election in England. The prime minister said: "Supposing the bill, as it stands, including Ulster, is passed, the rest of Ireland will be united with the rest of the country and approved by them, what would then be the attitude of Ulster? It is a very serious question, and one to which we are entitled to have an answer."

London, Jan. 2.—The home rule bill, as it stands, including Ulster, is to be put to the House of Commons today. The bill is a very serious question, and one to which we are entitled to have an answer.

The British cruiser Natal bringing the body of Whitelaw Reid reached Nantucket Lightship at nine o'clock this morning, and was met by the escort of six United States warships. Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 2.—In the dynamite conspirators' case, Judge Anderson today granted a writ of error. W. H. Hering announced that S. Hooken would seek an appeal.

GIBSON IS KILLED BY TRAIN

Garret Love Fell While Boarding I. C. R. Suburban—Lee Street and Miss Jordan to Marry Next Week

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 2.—Garret Love of Gibson, aged thirty, met a tragic death at the I. C. R. station here at eleven o'clock last night. He was boarding the suburban train for his home, and slipping on the icy pavement, fell headlong to the rails. The train was in motion, but was almost instantly stopped by the driver who had seen the accident, but the wheel of a car had passed over Love's neck. He expired within a few minutes. Coroner Weaver had the body removed to the waiting room and is holding an inquest this afternoon.

GOOE TO THE NEGOTIATIONS CEASE

Bulgarian Leader in London Conference Says Turkey Must Meet Allies' Views on Adrianople and Aegean Islands, and at Once

London, Jan. 2.—The peace negotiations between the Balkan and Turkish envoys will be broken off, according to Dr. S. Danef, chief of the Bulgarian delegation, unless the map, which the Turkish delegates are preparing, showing the proposed boundary between Bulgaria and Turkey, should prove to be in accordance with the interests of the allies. Dr. Danef said: "The position of affairs has not changed so much for the better as people seem to imagine. It must be borne in mind that from the beginning Turkey has always said she would make certain concessions in Macedonia and Epirus and in part of the province of Thrace. That is all right as far as it goes, but there remains the question of Adrianople. The future of Adrianople is one of the most vital points in the negotiations, and the situation in regard to it is to be expected, will not be improved by the Turkish delegates, showing proposed rectification of the boundary between Bulgaria and Turkey."

SEEK TO CRIPPLE NEW YORK RETAIL CLOTHING TRADE

Garment Workers Extend Strike to Men Who Make Alterations in the Department Stores

New York, Jan. 3.—The United Garment Workers of America, on strike to the number of 60,000 for more pay and better working conditions, extended the strike today to approximately 7,000 men employed in the local department stores. The strike order to the alterations makers employed in the alterations in ready-made garments would be issued, the strike leaders declared, in order to reach the retail trade.
