CONVICTS LEAP FROM TRAIN
Two, handcuffed together, escape from West Virginia. Officers.

Martinsburg, W. Va., March 8.—Handcuffed together, James Cody and Damon Hardy, prisoners who were being taken from here to the Mountaineer Penitentiary, escaped from their guard by leaping from a Baltimore & Ohio train while it was passing Blazer, east of Tunnelton. The men leaped through a window in the washroom. Cody, Hardy and two other prisoners were in charge of one guard. It is believed the men who escaped had worked the handcuff loose before leaping. The men had violated parole and were being taken back to serve unexpired terms.
