

The Evening Times-Star

The Weather Fine

A Progressive, Clean, Home Newspaper

VOL. XXI, No. 191

SAINT JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1925

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

ONTARIO GOVERNOR VISITS SAINT JOHN

CANON CODY OF TORONTO ALSO IN CITY TODAY

Visitors Bring Cheering Word On Improved Outlook

ARE SHOWN CITY

Ex-Minister of Education Discusses Phases of Work in Schools

COL. Henry Cockshutt, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, Canon H. J. Cody and Colonel Alex. Fraser, aide de camp to Governor Cockshutt are in Saint John today.

THE MARITIMES

Colonel Alexander Fraser, secretary to Governor Cockshutt of Ontario, is discussing Canadian business conditions generally, said the Ontario Governor and his party had been struck with the apparent ease and contentment of the people of Halifax and Saint John, which compared more than favorably with a somewhat restless state of labor and trade in the upper sections of the Dominion.

Other members of the Ontario delegation spoke. It was argued that despite figures issued purporting to show a majority for union, actually more individuals had voted against union than for it.

Ontario was hopefully looking at an up-grade turn of business conditions, and while there had been a great deal of unemployment in the last year and a half it was generally felt that this summer and autumn would see a definite change for the better. It was no denying the slump of late months in this country, but it would be equally foolish to believe that conditions were not naturally due to a change.

Colonel Fraser spoke in glowing terms of the mission of the Maritime Union of Canada, representative of The Telegraph-Journal and The Times-Star, across Canada in the interests of national unity in economic forward movements, and said it would be his special pleasure to meet the delegates here before he left the city. Governor Cockshutt could not be interviewed this morning.

Rev. Canon H. J. Cody of Toronto, former Minister of Education for Ontario, an outstanding figure in the Canadian religious world, veteran of the Great War and a prolific contributor to Canadian literature, is an apostle of simplified courses of study for public school children in this country and has been successful in working several important reforms in that direction already in his own province.

Interesting facts and opinions were elicited from him in a session in which conversation growing out of the educationist's expression of great pleasure upon seeing the rising walls of Saint John's new $300,000 vocational school in Douglas avenue.

COL. DENNISTOUN DROPS COMMISSION

Figure in Recent London Scandal Quits Army—No Reason Given.

LONDON, May 13.—Lieutenant-Colonel Ian Onslow Dennistoun, whose former wife, Dorothy Muriel Dennistoun, lost a breach of contract case against him recently in a trial marked by sensational testimony, has resigned his commission in the army. The reason is not given.

NEW FLYING RECORD

Airplane Makes Trip, London to Paris and Back Before 10.15 a. m.

LONDON, May 13.—A new air record was made a few days ago when Napier D. H. express, of Imperial Airways, flew from London to Paris and back by 10.15 a. m. The machine brought documents urgently required in London.

Viscount Milner Is First Victim of Sleeping Sickness Epidemic

RUM BLOCKADE SHIFTS TO CANADA AND MEXICO

Hon. J. A. Robb Dairy Farmer

WET FLEET IS DRIVEN FROM NEW ENGLAND

Five Vessels Appear On California Coast

EYES ON CANADA

Patrols Mass in Northern New York to Check Bootleggers From Montreal

WINNIPEG, May 13.—A campaign against entrance of Manitoba Presbyterian churches into the United Church was begun last night, when Rev. S. Banks Nelson, D. D., Hamilton, Ont., delivered an attack on the proposed union at a meeting in the National Assembly Hall.

De. Nelson declared that to enter union would be to go back to the "darkness of the middle ages."

Other members of the Ontario delegation spoke. It was argued that despite figures issued purporting to show a majority for union, actually more individuals had voted against union than for it.

RAIL EXTENSION TO OPEN NEW COUNTRY

W. B. Snowball, M. P., Says Newcastle-Tracadre Line to Start This Summer.

CAMPBELLTON, May 13.—Surveying for the proposed extension of the railway from Tracadre to Newcastle is to be carried on this summer, says W. B. Snowball, M. P. for Kent county, in a letter to the Newcastle Board of Trade.

JELICOE IS CHOSEN

Former Naval Commander to be Chairman of Overseas Settlement.

LONDON, May 13.—Viscount Jellicoe, former naval commander and former Governor General and commander in chief of New Zealand, has accepted the chairmanship of the Overseas Settlement.

House Expected To Prorogue June 15

OTTAWA, May 13.—Parliament is speeding up. Evidence before the ocean rates committee is expected to be complete by the end of next week. There is talk of prorogation by June 15.

Labor Head Sees Industrial Casualties Costlier Than War

TORONTO, May 13.—According to the viewpoint of Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, expressed here yesterday at the annual convention of the Industrial Accident Prevention Association, even if the human element were forgotten, accident prevention is a paying proposition from the standpoint of economics alone.

There had been approximately a quarter of a million accidents in Ontario alone, and if there were added to that a similar figure for Quebec, and another like number for the balance of the Dominion, it would be appreciated that accidents in Canada had reached in four years almost as serious a total as did the casualties during the war.

Mr. Moore was greatly pleased to see that the leaders of industry were taking such a prominent part in introducing safety devices.

Dry Navy Head Says Present Blockade Only Preliminary To Real Naval Liquor Warfare

national conference at El Paso, May 15.

WARFARE GOING ON NOW IS NOT IN ANY SENSE A "BIG DRIVE," said the colonel. "It is a test. We want to see how the rum runners will defend themselves against this treatment, then we will take the offensive against whatever move they make, and so on until it seems that we can operate against them in a really successful way."

OTTAWA, May 13.—Addressing a military gathering here last night, General J. H. MacBrien, Canadian chief of staff, said extolling peace would not prevent war.

"No thinking man can read the daily papers, make an examination of the frontiers of Europe, read of the trade rivalry between the United States and Japan, realize the huge importance placed by commercial countries on control over such strategic positions as the Suez Canal and the Straits of Gibraltar, without coming to the conclusion that sooner or later, there must be grave danger of war," the General said.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

GRAVE DANGER OF WAR, SAYS GEN. MACBRIEN

Declares Extolling Of Peace Will Not Prevent Conflict

PRaises MILITIA

Commends Those Who Spare Time From Businesses Of Professions

OTTAWA, May 13.—Addressing a military gathering here last night, General J. H. MacBrien, Canadian chief of staff, said extolling peace would not prevent war.

"No thinking man can read the daily papers, make an examination of the frontiers of Europe, read of the trade rivalry between the United States and Japan, realize the huge importance placed by commercial countries on control over such strategic positions as the Suez Canal and the Straits of Gibraltar, without coming to the conclusion that sooner or later, there must be grave danger of war," the General said.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

General MacBrien urged the necessity for maintaining efficiency of militia units and he expressed his admiration of the service being rendered by men engaged in business and professional callings, who rendered service to the Dominion by giving of their means and time to the duties entailed by holding commissions in militia units.

FORMER BRITISH WAR SECRETARY DIES IN LONDON

From Lowly Beginning, He Rose Rapidly In Fame

WAS DOCTOR'S SON

Had Distinction of Being The First Commoner Made Knight of Garter

LONDON, May 13.—Lord Milner, former Secretary of War, who has been ill for some time, died today at his residence, Sturry Court, near Canterbury. Viscount Milner's death is the first fatality of the epidemic of sleeping sickness, which has attacked several hundred persons throughout Great Britain. Lord Milner was reported improved on Sunday, but yesterday he weakened.

Confined in early life with many obstacles, earning a living and disappointment in his attempt to enter Parliament, the rise of Alfred Milner from a humble commoner to a peer of England and a Knight of the Garter was a characteristic example of the social revolution in England of the lowest Victorian days.

He went before the constituency of the Harrow division in 1885, but was defeated. The way for his entrance into politics was opened when he was named private secretary to the then Chancellor of the Exchequer. From that time his rise in politics was rapid.

In succession he was appointed Under-Secretary for Finance in Egyptian, chairman of the Board of Inland Revenue and Governor of the Cape of Good Hope. At the close of the Boer War, in addition to being created a Viscount, he was made Governor of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony, as well as being appointed High Commissioner. He returned to England in 1905, and as his party was at that time out of power he returned to his estates.

When David Lloyd George became Prime Minister in December, 1916, Lord Milner entered the cabinet as minister without portfolio. He became Minister for War in 1918, and the next year was named Secretary of State for the Colonies. The manner in which he handled the Irish situation

Continued on Page 2, column 1.

ENTERS CABINET.

SAYS GERMANY CAN BUILD GOOD SHIPS

Cost of Construction 20 Per Cent. Cheaper Than England, Declares Yarrow.

MONTREAL, May 13.—A gloomy picture of conditions in England is drawn by Sir Alfred Yarrow, head of Yarrow & Company, shipbuilders. Sir Alfred declared that Germany can build as good ships as England and that the cost of construction in Germany was about 20 per cent. cheaper, because Germans worked more hours and accepted less pay.

MONCTON, May 13.—Clifford McInnis, aged about 24, address unknown, was instantly killed when run over by a car on the Canadian National Railway's fast freight at Vimy Ridge, about three miles from Sackville this morning.

Clifford McInnis Missed Footing While Climbing Aboard Moving Car.

French Forces Move To Relieve Outposts

RABAT, French Morocco, May 13.—The French troops began a movement last night, for the relief of the besieged outposts surrounded by Abd-el-Krim's Rifian tribesmen, says an official communication. Both of the French officers in charge and half of the members of the garrison of 50 at one of these posts, were wounded and the body placed in charge of Dr. J. O. Calkin, of Sackville, the coroner, who is holding an inquest.

Belgian Cabinet Is Formed Today

BRUSSELS, May 13.—M. Van De Vyvere today succeeded in forming a new Belgian cabinet to succeed that of former Premier Theunis, which resigned several weeks ago.

FREDERICTON FIRE

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 13.—(Special)—The dwelling occupied by Ambrose Leger, 67 Charlotte street, was slightly damaged by a fire on the roof early this morning.

STERLING EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Sterling exchange steady. Great Britain, 48 1/2; France, 420; Italy, 409 1/2; Germany, 23.00. Canadian dollars par.

PROSECUTOR NAMED.

OTTAWA, May 13.—J. G. McRuer, assistant Crown Attorney, Toronto, has been appointed by the Federal Government as general prosecutor in connection with the western fruit combine investigation.

MURDER TRIAL TO START ON JUNE 9

Decision Reached in Charlotte County Matter Yesterday—Prisoner in Jail.

ST. ANDREWS, N. B., May 13.—The trial of Alfred Arsenault, Moncton youth now in the county jail here on a charge of murdering Alpheus Hanselpecker, of Bethel, in the yard of the latter's home last Friday, will be commenced on June 9 before Chief Justice Barry at St. Andrews. It was decided here yesterday.

CONGREGATION VOTES ON Church Name

FREDERICTON, May 13.—The congregation of the Frederickton Methodist church balloted at the roll call meeting Tuesday night on the name of the church after the United Church of Canada comes into existence. "Wilmet Memorial," "Carlton Street" and "Carlton Square" were the suggested names on the ballot but members voted at liberty to vote for other names. The ballots will be counted by the quarterly meeting on May 20.

ASSERTS C. N. R. COSTS PEOPLE OF CANADA 10 CENTS EACH A DAY

OTTAWA, May 13.—(Special)—The Canadian National Railway company per person per day is the burden of the Canadian National Railway upon the people of Canada, "the appalling burden that is frightening certain circles in Montreal" said David Crombie, chief of transportation of the Canadian National Railway, speaking before the Board of Trade yesterday. He deprecated any tendency to view the railway problem as one hopeless of solution.

TEMPERATURES

TORONTO, May 13.—Highest during day. Lowest during night.

Victoria ... 52 70
Calgary ... 46 74
Edmonton ... 50 74
Winnipeg ... 28 60
Toronto ... 53 66
Montreal ... 52 62
Saint John ... 48 51
Halifax ... 53 61
New York ... 60 62

NEW ENGLAND—Fair tonight. Thursday—Unsettled followed by showers in afternoon or night. Not much change in temperature. Variable winds, becoming moderate southwest and south.

SYNOPSIS—Pronounced high pressure is coming in over the Great Lakes from the northward, while in Southern Ontario and the Middle States the pressure is relatively low. The weather is fine throughout the Dominion.

FORECASTS

Fine

MARITIME—Moderate northwinds, fine. Thursday—Moderate northwinds, fine.

NEW ENGLAND—Fair tonight. Thursday—Unsettled followed by showers in afternoon or night. Not much change in temperature. Variable winds, becoming moderate southwest and south.

TEMPERATURES

TORONTO, May 13.—Highest during day. Lowest during night.

Victoria ... 52 70
Calgary ... 46 74
Edmonton ... 50 74
Winnipeg ... 28 60
Toronto ... 53 66
Montreal ... 52 62
Saint John ... 48 51
Halifax ... 53 61
New York ... 60 62

NEW ENGLAND—Fair tonight. Thursday—Unsettled followed by showers in afternoon or night. Not much change in temperature. Variable winds, becoming moderate southwest and south.

SYNOPSIS—Pronounced high pressure is coming in over the Great Lakes from the northward, while in Southern Ontario and the Middle States the pressure is relatively low. The weather is fine throughout the Dominion.

FORECASTS

Fine

MARITIME—Moderate northwinds, fine. Thursday—Moderate northwinds, fine.

NEW ENGLAND—Fair tonight. Thursday—Unsettled followed by showers in afternoon or night. Not much change in temperature. Variable winds, becoming moderate southwest and south.