APPEALS, ETC.

Appeals may be had to the County Court Judge, although he is a member of the Board. The appeal is somewhat similar to the proceedings now had from ordinary summary convictions, munus the jury. Many applications, however, will be heard before him at chambers with the view of having the same quickly disposed of, as, for instance, an appeal from a conviction under the 91st Section above given for selling liquor without a license.

There is added at the end of the Act a large number of forms of complaints and APPEALS, BIC.
