INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 21.—While ten thousand people were gathered under the trees at Fairview park tonight, riot broke out between the "Bungaloes," a local crowd of white boys and some colored boys. The whites chased the colored boys into the main pavilion and when the officers of the park protested them the Bungaloes fired several shots and stoned and clubbed the crowd.

CLEVELAND, Miss., July 21.—A band of armed negroes, none of whom were known, rode into Cleveland at half past one o'clock this morning, and stopping a party of three white men, made a surprising demand. Being called on to identify themselves, they answered by bringing their rifles into play.

THE STEEL STRIKE. CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 22.—John F. Ward, vice-president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin workers for the sixth district, says that he has completely frustrated any attempt of the American Steel and Wire Company to start its Newburg hoop plant in operation, despite contrary reports made by the company's agents.

DECISION AGAINST TRADES UNIONS. LONDON, July 22.—The house of lords has reversed the decision of the appeal court dissolving the injunction rendered August 30, 1900, by Justice Farwell in the high court of justice, which enjoined General Secretary Ball of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants and Organized Secretary Holmes from "watching and besetting" the Great Western railroad stations and approaches with a view of inducing non-striking trades unionists to take the place of staff and railroad strikers.

AMERICAN CAPITAL INTERESTED. ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—The Novosti reports that the capital of the copper company in which, according to the Novoye Vremya, United States Senator W. A. Clark has joined with Klief capital, is $20,000,000. Klief's capital is $10,000,000. The Ascension mines, near Semi-Palatinsk, are among the richest. It is said that the government granted the original syndicate a subsidy of 2,000,000 roubles. Senator Clark will visit Klief in the autumn, his son going to Siberia, to inspect mines.

WAS A SOMNAMBULIST. BATTLEBORO, Vt., July 21.—Testimony tending to support Morison S. Cress's statement of the shooting of Sidney Bristol, his college classmate, will be given at the adjourned hearing tomorrow by Fred Cross, of South Royalton, Mass., who was a room mate of Sidney Bristol when the latter was a student at Williams college, before he went to Yale. Cross remembered that Bristol was a somnambulist. Services in memory of Sidney Bristol were held at 3.30 this afternoon in the chapel of the Centre church. In recognition of Mr. Bristol's services in the Spanish-American war, 25 men who belonged to the first Vermont regiment in '98 attended the funeral.

FALLEN EIGHTEEN FEET. LONDON, July 22.—The rise of the North Sea coast or the sinking of the sea level has been confirmed, says the Berlin correspondent of the Standard, "by observations at the north of the Kaiser Wilhelm Canal. There has been a decrease in the depth of the water at the mouth of the Elbe of from 16 to 18 feet since 1855."

YACHTING ACCIDENTS. NEW YORK, July 22.—Four people drowned and 27 people rescued, is the record for yesterday's yachting and bathing accidents in the waters around New York. Drowned—William Hill, of Middleville, L. I., drowned off Whitestone, L. I.; Edward Delmeyer, drowned off "Rock Island," L. I.; Gallagher (Dennis) drowned in East River; Augustus Willis, drowned in Harlem river.

RACE TROUBLES. RIOTS YESTERDAY IN MISSISSIPPI AND INDIANA TOWNS. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 21.—While ten thousand people were gathered under the trees at Fairview park tonight, riot broke out between the "Bungaloes," a local crowd of white boys and some colored boys. The whites chased the colored boys into the main pavilion and when the officers of the park protested them the Bungaloes fired several shots and stoned and clubbed the crowd.

WOMEN TO JOIN UNION. NEW YORK, July 22.—Four women members of the American Federation of Women, appeared before the Central Federation Union of New York yesterday to ask aid in securing the co-operation of the families of laboring men in the work of women. It is expected to bring about through the union in the organized labor movement. The women propose to bring into their federations all the wives of union men in order that there may be complete co-operation in the event of strike in any of the branches. The argument is made that as the women spend the money made by the men, they can do the most effective work where merchants are concerned.

THE ITALIAN STILETTO. NEW YORK, July 22.—James Baum, a book-keeper, was fatally stabbed and a panic ensued among the passengers on a crowded Staten Island ferry boat late last night. The police arrested three Italians, one of whom, Feargus, was identified as Baum's assailant. The boat was on a trip from the island. A number of Italians on board were together singing. Baum, who was sitting next to the men, was quiet, and after some words he struck one of the Italians. Knives were drawn and Baum fell, blood flowing from his wound. The people nearest to the Italian made a rush for them, but police officers interfered and made the arrests.

PREHISTORIC CITY. LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 22.—A prehistoric city of immense proportions is said to have just been unearthed on the Navajo Indian reservation between Durango, Colo., and Farmington, N. M. The particulars of the find having been reported to the land department of the Santa Fe system in this city. A piece has been found containing, it is said, about 1,000 separate apartments, some of them in an excellent state of preservation. Another stone castle contained 100 separate apartments. In some of the rooms inspected were found the finest work of wood and other relics of a valuable character, specimens of which have been gathered and sent to the Smithsonian institute.

THE COMPANY WINS. SCRANTON, Pa., July 22.—The striking boiler makers, machinists and foundrymen at the shops of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad returned to work at the old rate of wages today, notice having been posted by the company, following a decision of the men to return that all of the 573 men who went on strike eight weeks ago would be taken back. Two men were discharged for cause. The 900 men employed by the Aills-Chalmers company remain out pending a settlement at the shops of the company in other cities.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES. DENVER, Colo., July 22.—Destruction by forest fires and prairie fires is reported from different points in the state directly attributable to the condition of grass and timber from the long dry spell. The timber fires have been burning several days near Mount Evans, Long Peak and on the Kenosha range. From Boca and Prowers counties, the centre of the stock raising district, come reports of destructive prairie fires. Ranchmen are becoming alarmed at the shortage of water in the streams.

WILL NOT INQUIRE. MADRID, July 21.—The Spanish senate yesterday rejected a motion which had been proposed by the Premier, Senor Sagasta, to determine by inquiry who was responsible for the dispatch to Spain in the war with the United States.

NEWS FROM NOME. THE BODIES OF SIX MEN FOUND FROZEN NEAR CAPE ROMANOFF. PORT TOWNSEND, Ws., July 22.—The steamship Oregon has arrived here. The Oregon sailed from Nome July 15. For several days previous to her sailing a fearful surf was sweeping the beach at Nome. A party consisting of ex-Governor Ogilvie of Yukon territory, Dr. Herbert B. Hatch and Mrs. E. S. Walker, wife of Captain Walker, while being landed from the St. Paul in a steam launch, barely escaped drowning. News comes from Unalak Island that two brothers named Sutherland, and a man named Jackson were probably murdered. The three men were landed there last fall by the schooner Thomas F. Bayard. She returned for them this season and found a collapsed tent, inside were a coat and vest, both of which were pierced with knife cuts. One of the Sutherlands was known to have $1,000 when he landed on the island.

Gaston Steiger, who is trying to break the record around the world, for the Matin of Paris, France, has left Chicago for Niagara Falls. Steiger expects to reach Paris on August 1. His time, the world's speeding trip will probably not be under sixty-four days.

THE METHODIST MINISTERS DEPLORE THE FACT THAT IT WILL BE DISTURBED BY THE OFFICIAL TOUR. The Methodist ministers met in regular session this morning. Rev. Dr. Wilson presided. Reports were received from the different churches. The following resolution was passed: "With extreme regret the open disregard of the quiet of the Lord's day as evinced by the official tour of His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Minto, being arranged that he will leave this city on Sabbath afternoon, thus causing a great deal of unnecessary work on that day, and greatly disturbing the sanctity we specially deplore this in view of the efforts being made throughout the Dominion to preserve intact the holy day for rest and worship."

AT BAY SHORE. The Tourist Association and hardware clerks open air band concert at Bay Shore on Saturday afternoon was greatly enjoyed by a large number of people. Not only our own citizens but numbers of those who are sojourning here from the coast were also on hand to enjoy the cool breath of the bay and generally appreciate the natural charms of this resort. The precise number of people who passed over of the Carleton ferry was 2,500—not bad for an afternoon. The band of the 62nd Regt. furnished the music.

BACK TO NEW BRUNSWICK. H. Craig, who has been in Minneapolis for some years, returned last week to N. B., accompanied by his wife and family and intends building and taking up his residence in Perth. Miss Mattie Gay, who has been with them since last December, also returned. Seymour Traflet, another exodan, is expected at Perth in a few days in charge of Mr. Craig's furniture.—Victoria Co. News.

WILL PLAY THE GAME. Definite arrangements as to date and grounds for the struggle between the Custom House and Western Union ball teams have not been arranged. Both grounds, it is said, are after the game, and no decision has as yet been reached and the day has not been settled, because there are a few kinks in the arms of several of the veterans, which have to be removed. The Custom House is going to bring out such reliables as Keith Barber, Geo. Jenkins and others. They have been warming up lately and promise trouble for the opposing pitcher, Charlie Tilley, who do the honors in the box for the civil service. The Western Union men have got their connections all made and promise to give the other nine several shocks before the fun is over.
