times of 1838, so ably and as fice of Commandant of the Di his family on the times of 1938, so ably and a fee of Commandant of the D his family on board the steam his way to his native count carrying along with him the property of the state of the sta mally morred by the flames.

Where Faor.—Last nigh
January, and there was see consequence, where the in good tre. The farmers in this morning, saw the color of the verdour of yesterday h strong white frost, which it is derable damage to the grow'
The mercary in the there Clarks, in Wall-street, stocmorning.

The mercury in the thera-Clark's, in Wall-street, stocmorning.

Capt. Dookerary, of the when off the island of Jamaie 27th of April by a praticule at three times, and then left. "At the time, and the suppose leaving her was, that she worth tsking, she at the so in specie in the cabin, and be supposed with the stop that the stop of the stop

The following is a correct wounded:
Robert Ross, fireman, kill
Lawrence Forest, do. toissin hand, do.; Charles Davis, de pilot, hadly scalded; Jankon, Manning, do. do.;
Sightly do.; George Stansw.
The boilers of the boat we three years and had been if fall.—N. O. Hee, 24th.

three years and had been it fall.—N. O. Hee, 24th.

GERAT SPEED.—The the tween Ripton and American for $1000 a side, was decourse, at Hoboken, N. J. leaving the score on the first Ripton passed him and kephent in 2m. 43s. On the broke on the first quarter to way all round, performing twinning the purse—thus tall broke on the first quarter to way all round, performing twinning the purse—thus tall control of the control of surprise, all they sides, and they are safe, have no power on Indian there of the control of surprise, all they sides, and they are safe, have no power on Indian there are no power on Indian there are no power on Indian there are the control of the control of surprise, all they sides, and they are safe, have no power on Indian there are safe, have no power on Indian there are safe, have no power on Ripasse design mutually owned by blers, cannot be touclied.

Later from Brazil.—On

Later from Brazil.—On Langsdorff, Ambassador French, presented himself licited the hand of the Princ for the Prince do Joinville dressed the Emperor: Sire—I present myself, i my august soveroign, to as rial Highness the Princess Majesty's sister, for Mon Joinville

Nothing could be more the King than a union whis the sie of family that alreadynastics and the ties of family that alreadynastics and the ties of two nations. I venture to I feelings are the same. If enter that family sanctuary lay aside the point that you are the feelings are the same. If enter that family sanctuary trees, those tender and a France admires also in the verns herself. In parting love has watched over her licitude, and from a below secure to her universal ad Francess Francesca will take the feeling of the troyal family so close to each other. Her happers for the feeling the feeling that the will be so pleasing to me, and will be consent with all my her consent with all my her so possessing to me, and will be consent with all my her so that the words:

My sister, to whom you will assuredly confirm the royal family of France a grets she must needs feel that gave her birth.

The Baron then address words:

Madam—The happing Prince de Joinville wond your gracious confirmatio Emperor, your angost be it is from yourself also the sires to obtain your hand must Princes, he has been preciate for himself those distinguish your imperial madan, will thank him fashood be so.

You will not come as a boson of that new family you. You will find ther which you know as well.

You will not come as a boson of that new family your. You will find ther which you know as well.

You will not come as a boson of that new family your. You will find ther which you know as well.

You will not come as a boson of that new family will be an out the which you know as well.

You will not come as a boson of that new family will be an out the which you know as well.

You will not come as a boson of that new family will be an out the which you know as well.