Budget Fight to Reach In Final Rejection Of Bill By House Of Lords This Week.

Acting Discounted But At Feverish Activity and Developments Are Anxiously Awaited.

London, Nov. 27.—The coming week will be memorable in the parliamentary annals of Great Britain. A majority of the Lords, despite the warnings of such experienced politicians as Lord Rosebery and Lord Balfour of Burleigh, have decided to withhold their consent to the budget, and it is a foregone conclusion that Lord Lansdowne's motion to reject the finance measures will be carried by a large majority. But while the result is foreseen interest in the debate remains undiminished, and the speeches to be delivered Monday and Tuesday, preceding the division are eagerly anticipated. Viscount Morley, Secretary of State for India, will re-open the discussion when the House of Lords convenes Monday, and he will be followed by Lord Curzon former viceroy of India, providing the latter has recovered then from his illness. Then the financiers will have their say, Lord Rothschild speaking on behalf of the Unionists and Lord Swaythling for the Liberals. Earl Cawdor and the Earl of Crewe will make the principal speeches on Tuesday.

MRS. GLOVER ELIMINATED FROM MURDER MYSTERY

Waltham Police Still Baffled Over Laundry Man's Death—Cape Breton Man Nervous In Confinement.

Waltham, Mass., Nov. 28.—With several seemingly strong points at variance with each other, the details of the murder of Clarence F. Glover, wife of the murdered man, who was arrested yesterday on the charge of contempt of court in refusing to answer questions at the inquest, is closely watched in his cell. No person is allowed to enter the cell. Mrs. Kenna, LeBlanc was very nervous during the night and today. He will come before the court tomorrow. Four of the murdered man, have united in a statement in which they declare that another brother Seymour, who was the only brother to benefit under the will of the dead man, had named to the district attorney a person whom he suspected of being responsible for the murder. General opinion has it that Mrs. Glover was under the will of the dead man, had named to the district attorney a person whom he suspected of being responsible for the murder. # M'BRIDE BUSY SELECTING HIS NEW CABINET

Arrangements of ministers will be announced a few weeks later. H. H. Watson, of Vancouver, may be taken into the cabinet as well as W. R. Ross, of Fernie. A Liberal convention is to be called shortly under the existing circumstances will be decided. It is probable that Mr. Brewster will resign the Liberal seat to permit the placing of party leaders should John Oliver reconsider his determination to withdraw from politics. Premier McBride will go to Vancouver Monday to give evidence in the case of Green vs. World, and shortly after will visit Yale to confer with his constituents. He will hold Victoria seat, throwing Yale open.

SCHOONER BRINGS STORY OF COLLISION

R. Bowers At Vineyard Haven After Having Been Ramm'd By Steamer Buffalo Off Sandy Hook.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., Nov. 28.—The first news of a collision between the steamer Buffalo, New York for Hull, England, carrying passengers and freight and the schooner R. Bowers, South Amboy for Calais, off Sandy Hook on Friday morning last, was brought here today by the schooner. The Bowers sustained damage to her hull and her jibboom and the attached rigging were carried away. She is not leaking. The Buffalo proceeded for her destination, apparently uninjured. No person on either vessel was hurt. The Buffalo had just discharged her pilot and was to the windward of Bowers. According to Captain Kelson of the schooner, his vessel was proceeding on her proper course with the wind fresh from the north-west and weather clear. He says the Buffalo apparently attempted to cross the Bowers' bows. The schooner was struck on the port side forward, the steamer's great bow gouging the hull above the waterline and carrying away the jibboom. Two of the crew of the schooner leaped aboard the steamer when the vessels came together, fearful that their craft would sink. They were afterward returned to their schooner. The captain exchanged hails as to the seaworthiness of their craft and each finding the other able to proceed, went on his way.

GERMAN REICHSTAG RECONVENES TUESDAY

Emperor To Personally Open House—Speech From The Throne Looked Forward To With Interest.

Berlin, Nov. 28.—The Reichstag will reconvene Tuesday and the emperor will return to Berlin to open the session personally. The speech from the throne will be delivered in the white hall of the palace and is expected to contain some interesting forecasts of the imperial policy. The session will be comparatively quiet, it is believed, although the schism between the various parties growing out of financial reform legislation is still intense. The Socialists are the only party satisfied with the course of events since the finance bills were passed. The deliberations in the Reichstag are expected to touch American affairs. Various points of the American tariff are sure to be discussed in some form, even if no treaty or tariff agreement is presented for ratification.

MORE LIGHT IS SHED ON I.C.R. PASS FRAUDS

With Special Agent Tingley Away The Opportunity To Converse Freely Has Come And The Business Unearthed

THE SCHEME IN ITS DETAILED WORKING

Special to The Standard. Moncton, Nov. 28.—Special Agent A. J. Tingley's absence from the city yesterday gave ample opportunity for those connected with the pass frauds to converse freely on the situation and they took advantage of it. One of the pass purchasers arrived in the city Thursday night. During the evening following day, he had conversations with some of the principals. He claims to have purchased only three passes at half-price, obtaining his, as he alleges from a reporter. It is understood that the former clerk in the master mechanics office, who is now in Boston spending a few weeks, claims that he was not the only one handling passes and his statement is no doubt correct, as he holds or did hold in his possession, a pass from St. John to Truro, filled in by another party. The story reads like this: A young man whose name need not be mentioned here, met the clerk and stated that he is going to Gagetown for a few days. The clerk says: "You had better see the doctor." The advice is taken, and the party seen, looks over several envelopes, and finally comes to the required pass which reads "Truro to St. John and return." The young man goes to St. John, and returning, goes as far as Sackville, getting off there, he naturally holds his pass and returns to Moncton. The inquiry comes up and the young man asks the clerk if there is anything wrong about his pass, and produces the end not handed in. The clerk gets this, saying that it may be of use to him, as he did not fill it in, and he can identify the writing which will show that he was not alone in the pass business. On Monday the 16th, the clerk and the pass vendor held a conversation, but it is supposed that the former has reported the matter to Mr. Brady. The vendor of passes claims that he did not fill in the name T. Evans, but does not deny the other part. The young traveler apparently used the pass in good faith, and no doubt thought it all right to do so. It is claimed by the pass issuers that the matter is fixed. However, they may know Chief Tingley's mission in Boston.

The fact is that passes have been misused for four or five years and a certain local trader is said to have offered them for sale some few years ago. Too many in on the game has had the effect of disclosing some valuable information and more now is known than the parties interested are aware of. Some startling exposures may be made later on if the game continues.

INSURGENTS ENGAGED IN FINAL STRUGGLE

Nicaraguan Conflict Approaching Its End—Fighting General Now Throughout Country.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28.—The Nicaraguan insurgents are now engaged in what is expected to be the final struggle with the Zelayan forces, according to unofficial advice tonight reaching Salvador, Castillo, the representative here of the Nicaraguan insurrectionary forces. The advice indicates that fighting is in progress both at Rama and Greytown and that a general assault on Managua, the capital, will follow. The arms and ammunition landed early this week from the Norwegian steamer Utstein are believed now to be in the hands of the insurrectionists and prompt use of them by Estrada's forces is expected. Senor Castillo pointed out tonight that it would require less than three days to transport the munitions from Bluefields, where the Utstein landed them, to Rama and that as soon as his compatriots were supplied, immediate contact with the government troops was inevitable. The Department of State declared tonight it had received no advices of any kind from Nicaragua. All inquiries as to the landing of munitions on Nicaraguan territory were met with evasive replies, but these were such as to give rise to the belief that some force has been put ashore to protect American interests and to reconnoiter. Just how large this force may be or how long it may be intended to be kept there could not even be guessed.

POLITICAL DOT REGIMING TO DOUBT IN CUBA

Trouble Foreshadowed In General Gomez Failure To Carry Out Fusion Promises—Conservatives In Arms.

SCHEME TO DEPOSE PRESIDENT ON FOOT

Havana, Nov. 28.—Not since the downfall of the administration of President Palma has the political atmosphere of Cuba been more obscure and more laden with suggestions of trouble than it is at the present. The re-established republic is scarcely nine months old and already rumors have become persistent that some way is being sought to work the retirement of President Gomez, either by persuasion or compulsion and to place Vice-President Zayas at the head of the nation. When General Gomez received the post of chief magistrate from Governor Magoon, the followers of Vice-President Zayas stood shoulder to shoulder with those of the president in the determination to give the new administration a fair trial. That they regard the trial as a failure, is evidenced by their manifest issued shortly before the re-convening of Congress, in which they declared their intention of beginning an active campaign against the administration. This resolution of the national committee was confirmed at a mass meeting a few days ago when the administration was fiercely attacked by the most prominent orators of the party. The Conservative opposition has not yet manifested itself decisively in the Congress, which leads to the impression that considerable negotiation is going on, either with the view of coming to terms with the administration or forming a coalition with the faction of Vice-President Zayas. That such a coalition is among the possibilities is shown by the continuance of strained relations between the president and the vice-president. As leaders of the two great divisions of the Liberal party they have always been rivals, though Dr. Zayas relinquished his aspirations to the presidency at the beginning of the last campaign. Probably the most serious condition that the president is now facing is that resulting from the failure of his effort to secure the support of the Liberal party. For about three years negotiations have been in progress and during the presidential campaign there was a truce, but the beginning of the distribution of offices under the new administration, mutual distrust was re-established, each side contending the other for the share of the Liberal leaders by addressing them a letter in which he stated that so far as he was officialy concerned, he had decided to consider fusion as an accomplished fact, and he would in the future make all references to his cabinet without any allusion to the particular faction of the Liberal party to which the appointee might have belonged. The attitude of the president was particularly objectionable to the Zayas faction because the post of secretary of state was recently made vacant by the resignation of Justo Garcia Velez, a prominent member of the faction and it was feared that the Liberal party would have an opportunity to fill with one of its own supporters. The incident has served to defer the accomplishment of fusion.

Another disquieting feature of the situation is the renewal of agitation for the formation of a negro party. For some weeks past Havana has been the headquarters of Cuban leaders from all sections of the island, who have come to confer with Senator Morua del Gado, president of the senate, an acknowledged leader of his race. The grievances of the negroes is that they have not been given the number of offices to which they feel they are entitled. Morua is known to have presidential aspirations and as his term in the senate will soon expire, it is more than likely that he will demand a cabinet position.

NO CAR SERVICE IN WINNIPEG YESTERDAY

Prairie City Spends a Quiet Sunday Owing To Tie-up In Water Service—Factories Running Against Time.

Special to The Standard. Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 28.—Though today was the quietest Sunday observed in Winnipeg for years, owing to the fact that no street cars operated, a few industrial plants were running full blast as the police had been instructed not to interfere. Such instructions were issued to the police by Alderman Cox, on behalf of the police commission and the Lords Day Alliance, decided to take no action in the matter. By the curtailing of the street car service, it was possible to supply power to practically the entire city and though many of the factories did not avail themselves of the opportunity to operate, a number of industrial firms were compelled to recover a certain amount of the time lost. These firms operated from early morning to late at night and one or two will continue through until 5 o'clock Monday morning when power will again be temporarily shut off to run the street cars. An electrical expert has arrived from New York to examine La Debonnet plant and decide how long it will take the best method to adopt in drying it out.

MANY BOATS NOW ADRIFT

Hullfax, N. S., Nov. 28.—The fierce storm that swept the Nova Scotia coast last week carried away two valuable passenger steams along the western shore, and the same danger to Halifax for American and shore ports, and liners from St. John for Halifax and the United Kingdom are in grave danger of being carried on dangerous ledges. Last night C. H. Harvey, agent of the marine and fisheries department at Halifax received a message from the light keeper at Cape Sable stating that the southwest ledge gas and whittling buoy had broken adrift and carried away. As this is the most important aid to navigation along the coast, Mr. Harvey immediately ordered the steamer Bridgewater to go in search of the buoy. Tonight the marine and fisheries agent at St. John informed the Halifax branch that the buoy off Seal Island was adrift. This buoy is only eighteen miles from the Cape Sable ledge light buoy.

SIR CHARLES ON ALL ABSORBING SEEKS TARIFF WAR AHEAD

Veteran Parliamentarian Declares For Naval Policy—Cannot Understand Demand For Dreadnoughts.

AN INTERPRETATION OF LAURIER'S SPEECH

Special to The Standard. London, Nov. 28.—The Times publishes a letter from Sir Charles Tupper to Mr. R. L. Borden, dated the 20th November, on the question of the Canadian navy, which says that all that is required is that the Government of the day should carry out the resolution passed in the House of Commons at Ottawa, last session, pledging Parliament to proceed vigorously with the construction of a Canadian navy. A Fearful Responsibility. Sir Charles cannot understand the demand for Dreadnoughts and cannot avoid thinking that a fearful responsibility will rest on those who disturb or destroy the compact entered into at the Imperial defence conference. This is a vitally important question. The Times editorially says: "Sir Charles Tupper's letter should contribute to a strengthening of the concord between Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden on the naval question." The Times also says: "Laurier's speech of the 15th contains the true form of Imperial unity. It is not really derogatory to this lofty ideal to say, as Laurier also said on the same occasion, 'Canada would have a navy and that navy would not go to war unless the Parliament of Canada chose to send it.' In the abstract such a proposition is indisputable, in the abstract it applies to any and every form of co-operation or contribution for the purpose of Imperial defence, but in the concrete it is certain the same consideration and motives which have served to bring about the present situation will also serve to maintain and develop it."

EVICTED STRIKERS SLEEP IN STREETS

Striking Poles Evicted From Guard Household Goods In Streets.

Ludlow, Mass., Nov. 28.—Still peaceful, deserver of 24 hours of the events of yesterday, the evicted Polish strikers and their families today stood guard over their several families passed the night with their furniture in the streets. Few have yet made a definite plan. Expressions on all sides however, reiterated opposition to the Ludlow Associates, owners of the tenements which they had occupied as employees in the firm's mills. By the curtailing of the street car service, it was possible to supply power to practically the entire city and though many of the factories did not avail themselves of the opportunity to operate, a number of industrial firms were compelled to recover a certain amount of the time lost. ### Issues Statement In Which He Compares Claim Of Rival Arctic Explorers—Cook's Story Suspicious.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28.—Walter Wellman, whose preparations for a conquest of the North Pole in an airship were abandoned upon the announcement of the claims of Dr. Frederick A. Cook and Commander Robert E. Peary, issued a long statement here tonight in which he analyzes the narratives of the two explorers, declaring that of Peary "precise, workman-like, consistent, credible in every particular," and denouncing that of Dr. Cook as a self-evident and even deliberate imposture. "Cook's story is suspicious, both in what it does tell and what it does not tell," Mr. Wellman declares. "He is generally vague and indefinite, but like most men of his class, altogether too precise at the wrong place. No where does his story ring true. It is always an approximation of reality itself. This is true of his figures, his descriptions, everything."

Mon Who Wants To Drain Zuyder Zee Is Repelled From Seeing J. D. With Firearms.

RETURNING YESTERDAY IN A HURRY

Cleveland, O., Nov. 27.—In an unsuccessful attempt to gain the ear of John D. Rockefeller at his Forest Hill home, Count P. A. DeVries, nobleman of Amsterdam, Holland, was fired upon twice and ejected from the Rockefeller mansion. Since Wednesday the count has been making daily attempts to see the head of the Standard Oil Company to interest him in a project for the draining of the Zuyder Zee. Wednesday and Thursday DeVries was turned back at the gate. Returning yesterday in a huge rented automobile, DeVries approached the Euclid avenue entrance to the grounds at high speed. The gate keeper shouted to him to stop, but DeVries dashed through the gates and about the winding driveway toward the house at the top of the hill. He was fired upon as he neared the house. Leaping from his automobile he mounted the steps and entered the house followed by a squad of guards who came on the run. Before DeVries could enter Rockefeller's study, however, he was collared by the butler and by caretaker Knapp and ejected. He then left, and according to a story told today was fired upon again as he sped toward the gate. While the excitement was at its height Mr. Rockefeller himself was one hundred yards away on the golf links unaware of the failure of the Zuyder Zee project. Count DeVries is still here and has announced that he will make further attempts to see Rockefeller and will, if necessary, follow him to Pocantico Hills, his Tarrytown, N. Y., residence when he goes there for the winter. DeVries is young, handsome, well-dressed and well supplied with funds.

CONGRESSMAN MANN COUNSELS WASHINGTON TO ALTER DUTIES ON WOOD PULP.

Declares That Canada Will Retaliate Unless Payne Legislation Be Ammended.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Congressman Mann, who was chairman of the special committee on woodpulp and print paper of the last congress, and who prepared the provisions of these items as first reported to the house by the Payne tariff bill, but who was overruled by congress in the final passage of the tariff law, takes the position that the country may well be alarmed at the danger of a tariff war with Canada growing out of the tariff on woodpulp and print paper under the Payne act. To Introduce Bills. Mr. Mann has prepared, and at the beginning of the forthcoming session will introduce several bills relating to this subject. One of his measures is a joint resolution to postpone the approval of the maximum tariff from April first next to January first 1911. Another of his resolutions provides that the maximum tariff of the United States shall be held not to apply to woodpulp and print paper imported from Canada. Mr. Mann will introduce a bill which provides that woodpulp and printing paper shall be admitted free of duty when imported from Canada, being the product thereof, on the condition that Canada or the province in which the woodpulp or printing paper is manufactured shall not forbid or restrict or impose any export duty or export license fee upon printing paper, mechanically ground woodpulp or wood used in the manufacture of woodpulp. The measures when introduced will be referred by the speaker to the committee on ways and means, but Mr. Mann may make a fight in the house to have them referred to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce of which he is the new chairman. Mr. Mann says that unless some legislation such as he proposes be adopted, or a reciprocal treaty with Canada be agreed to, Canada smarting under the injustice of the Payne tariff law is likely to forbid the exportation of wood from Canada to the United States.

The Brain Of Caesar Attributed To Rockefeller By New York Clergyman—A Sk's That Position Be Defined.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 28.—John D. Rockefeller's most recent contribution to religion, according to the Rev. Dr. Oscar Hayward of this city, is words, not money. Such an expression of his, Dr. Hayward contends, would do more than anything else to equalize religious differences and establish a broad bond of brotherhood. "Rockefeller has the brain of Caesar and unlimited moral influence," said the clergyman during his sermon at the Church of the Covenant today. "Then let our most conspicuous man of wealth define his position with reference to evangelical Christianity."
