Here is the plan in detail, read it: Two hundred and fifty dollars in gold, free. Twenty-seven extra cash prizes offered by The Standard and in the great $40,000 prize contest. The Standard offers twenty-seven extra cash prizes amounting to $250 to the contestant securing the largest number of votes issued on subscriptions turned into the contest department of The Standard between the dates of Thursday, April 25 and Saturday, May 11, at 8 p. m. Here is the plan—First prize, $40,000. Second prize, $250. Ten prizes, each, $10. Fifteen prizes, each, $5. To the contestant securing the largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and May 11, inclusive.

Second prize, $25, to contestant securing second largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and May 11, inclusive.

Ten dollars each to the next ten contestants securing the largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and May 11, inclusive.

Five dollars each to the next fifteen contestants securing the largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and May 11, inclusive.

All votes cast on the automobiles and other prizes.

In case of a tie for any of these prizes, the prizes of equal value will be given to contestants who tie for said prizes.

Send or bring in your subscriptions to the Contest Department of The Standard, as you receive them.

A careful count will be kept of all votes issued on all subscriptions turned into The Standard contest department during the above mentioned dates. A full credit will be given on the books as the subscriptions are turned in.

On the special cash prizes contest toward the regular prizes also, and do not interfere in any way with your chance of winning one of the regular prizes. Like the other votes issued on subscriptions, you do not have to publish them at once, but you may hold them and publish them at any time up to the last day of the contest as hereinafter provided.

Put the list of contestants in the contest book, as you receive them, and you will have an equal chance to win one of these cash prizes. The awards will be given to the winning contestant on Monday, May 15. Winning one of the extra cash prizes does not interfere with your chance of winning one of the regular prizes.
