CARLETON CO.
DOCTOR IN EGYPT
WITH A. M. C.

Interesting letter received from Dr. MacIntosh who is with the Royal Army Medical Corps.

Hartland, N. B., Dec. 31.—Despite the war and a cry of hard times in certain quarters, the business men in Hartland and surrounding districts report the Christmas trade as good, and in some instances better than for some years. There was good sleighing and pleasant weather and the Christmas spirit was well up to the standard.

In a letter dated at Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 1, and addressed to a friend here, Dr. MacIntosh, who is with the Royal Army Medical Corps, writes an interesting description of the country through which he has passed. In another letter to Mr. J. J. Dagget, Secretary of Agriculture, he speaks of his trip through the Mediterranean, one of the most dangerous parts of the war zone. The doctor is well and is enjoying his work.

Major W. W. Melville of East Florenceville who has been almost continuously on the firing line in command of the Brighton Engineers, has been granted a furlough and will shortly visit his family.

Mr. John F. Murdoch, who is over-seer for the Fraser-Matheson Lumber Co., at St. Eustache, Que., has been home for the holidays. He says that during the summer a new mill was built at Estcourt, which will cut seven million of lumber during the coming season.

The young people of Beaufort and Fessenden gave a fine entertainment in the church hall at Glassville on Monday the 27th ult., the proceeds going to the aid of the Red Cross Society. The attendance was good.

At the closing exercises of the Waterville school on Dec. 15, the pupils presented their teacher, Miss Ethel Nevers, with a beautiful gold clock and an appreciative address. With the closing of the term Miss Nevers severs her connection with the school.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milford G. Cox at Knoxford on Dec. 22, there was a pretty wedding, when their youngest daughter, Miss Eva Lydia, became the wife of Mr. Barry Floyd McKay of Florenceville. The bride wore white silk trimmed with plaid silk tulle and shadow lace bolero, surmounted by a bridal veil. Rev. M. H. Manuel performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. A wedding feast was spread. They will reside for the winter at the home of the bride.

At Riverbank, on Christmas Day, at the home of Mrs. Bruce Tompkins, Rev. M. H. Manuel performed the ceremony which united in marriage her adopted son, George Burton Elliott, and Miss Emily Elizabeth Murray of Pipestone, Manitoba. Miss Nettie McLerman supported the bride, while Mr. Herbert Smalley performed a like service for the groom. About fifty guests sat down to a bounteous wedding repast. The young couple will reside at Riverbank.

Clark's lath mill at Simonds started its winter operations on Tuesday, employing a good number of men. Mrs. Harvey Goodwin and daughter Bessie have gone to Millinocket, Me., for a visit with her son Robert.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGregor of St. Andrews were guests this week at the home of Mr. Frank Hageman.

Miss Winifred Kierstead spent the holidays at her home in St. Stephen. Miss Blanche Kelly sustained a fall on the icy sidewalk the other day, from which she will be confined to the house for some time.

A full blown pancy on Christmas Day? Fact: Mr. Charles Stevens rescued it after it had pushed its head through the smothering snow. Mrs. Harvey Goodwin and daughter Bessie have gone to Millinocket, Me., for a visit with her son Robert.

Mr. E. Fulton is visiting relatives here.

CARPENTER

Carpenter, Jan. 1.—On Saturday evening, Dec. 18, the neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Shiga. The occasion was a surprise party for Mrs. Shiga, who was presented with a beautiful cashmere dress in recognition of her services as organist of the church. Refreshments were served by the ladies and a pleasant evening spent in social intercourse.

The annual Christmas tree and entertainment of the Sunday school was held on Christmas eve. A nice programme was carried out. Santa Claus arrived in time to help unload the tree after which the ladies served cake and coffee.

Miss Rowena Carpenter, a student at Acadia Seminary, is spending the holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carpenter.

Miss Bessie Watson is spending the holidays at her home here.

The weekly session of Wickham Star Lodge, I.O.G.T., was held in the hall on Wednesday evening. A large number were present and a good entertainment enjoyed.

The members of Wickham Star Lodge were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Carpenter on Friday evening. The evening was spent in games and music.

After watching the closing of the old year and extending the usual greetings for the new year the people left for their various homes.

It was with feelings of deep sorrow that the people here learned of the death of J. Arthur Belyea, K. C. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family.

Interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. R. J. Potts on Monday, the president, Mrs. L. E. McFarland, in the chair. Mrs. Harry Bradley led a discussion on "Which is the best, the old or the new Santa Claus?" Piano solos were given by Miss Maud Henderson of New York, and Miss Helena Adams; violin solo by Mrs. L. R. Hetherington; reading by Mrs. M. L. Hayward. Refreshments were served.

NOTICE OF GRANTING LETTERS PATENT.

"THE HAVELOCK MERCANTILE CO., LIMITED."

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that under "The New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies Act," Letters Patent have been issued under the Seal of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer, bearing date the sixteenth day of December, A. D. 1935, incorporating Agnes Florence Keith, married woman, Hilary Atherton Keith, business manager; Leonard Olive Keith, clerk; all of the Village of Havelock, in the County of Kings, and Province of New Brunswick; Charles Hilary Keith, of the Village of Pettiboe, in the Parish of Salisbury, in the County of Westmorland, in said Province, agent, and Frank Austin Keith, farmer, for the following purposes, namely:—

To acquire, purchase and take over from Agnes Florence Keith, married woman of the Village of Havelock, in the County of Kings, and Province of New Brunswick, as a going concern, the general mercantile business now carried on by said Agnes Florence Keith at the said Village of Havelock, under the firm name and style "The Havelock Mercantile Company," together with the stock-in-trade, goods and other personal property connected with the said business, now contained in the store and buildings occupied by the said Agnes Florence Keith, situate at the Village of Havelock aforesaid, and to issue fully paid-up shares of the Company in payment of the purchase price of the said business.

To acquire, purchase and take over all accounts due from any person or persons, firms or corporations to the said "The Havelock Mercantile Company," and to assume the liabilities of the said "The Havelock Mercantile Company," existing at the time of the transfer hereunder.

To engage in and carry on a general mercantile business and to trade as wholesale and retail merchants and traders and dealers in groceries and provisions, hardware, clothing, dry goods, boots and shoes, leather, harnesses, furniture, coal, hay, grain, lumber, fuel, food, potatoes, farm machinery, carriages, lumbermen's and fishermen's supplies and outfitting of all kinds, gasoline engines and fittings, oil and gasoline motor appliances and parts, furs, and all kinds of commodities and merchandise, and to store and warehouse goods, and to operate cold storage.

To acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, such real estate as may be required for the business of the said Company, and to sell, encumber and mortgage the same for the purpose thereof, or as may be.

To act as agents for merchants, manufacturers, fishermen or other persons, companies or corporations, who may employ this Company as Agents in the transaction of any business and to do all things incidental thereto.

To acquire, use, register and dispose of patent rights, trademarks and trade processes, and to grant licenses and permits thereunder.

To purchase or otherwise acquire or take over from time to time and to undertake and carry on the business, property, assets or liabilities of any persons, firm, company, or corporation carrying on a business which this Company is authorized to carry on or possess, and to purchase or acquire the good will and stock-in-trade of any business of a similar nature.

To undertake and do all such things as are incidental to and conducive to the general business of the Company, and the attainment of its various objects, to the same extent and as fully as natural persons might do, as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, assignees or otherwise.

To do anything and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, incidental to or proper for the carrying on of the business of the Company in its various branches, or any part or branch thereof, or for the accomplishment of any of the purposes of the Company, or carry on the business conducive to the advancement of its business interests; by the name of "The Havelock Mercantile Co., Limited," with a total capital stock of nine thousand and no hundred dollars, divided into ninety-nine shares of one hundred dollars each, and with the head office at the Village of Havelock, in the County of Kings, in the Province of New Brunswick.
