

PROVINCIAL NEWS

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Gagetown

Gagetown, March 24.—Dr. G. C. Owen, founder of the Gagetown Farm at Lower Gagetown, arrived this week from New York, and will spend some time at Lower Gagetown.

Dr. J. A. Casswell left on Tuesday for Kentville, N. S., on business in connection with the fruit farm which he has purchased in the neighboring province. That "The Doctor" is leaving this locality after his long residence here, is a source of regret to everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel DeVaher returned on Thursday afternoon from a short trip to St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corbett, whose marriage took place in St. John on Wednesday, returned on Thursday's train, and were warmly welcomed. Mr. Corbett returned last summer from overseas, and has been employed with D. A. Adamson in his lumbering operations here and on the Washabouk Lake. Many friends of both young people unite in extending to them their best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett will reside with Mrs. Corbett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher, until the latter move to their new home in Codrington, Ont.

Mrs. David M. Duke, who has been ill for several days with pleurisy is somewhat improved today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson of St. John are spending some weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Erb. Alec. Fisher, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher, who has been ill with scarlet fever at the Victoria Hospital, Fredericton, for several weeks, is slowly convalescing and his friends hope to see him home again before long.

News of the sudden death in St. John last week of Ernest E. Harrison was heard with much regret here, where his father, Rev. H. Harrison was formerly pastor of the Methodist church.

Rev. L. H. Jewett, pastor of the Methodist Church, Mrs. Jewett and Master Grover and little Miss Allison Jewett, have all been laid up this week with influenza, which it was hoped, had at last died out in this locality. All are, however, on their way to recovery.

Fred L. Brooks is leaving this week for Truro, N. S., where he has accepted a position with the Dominion Bridge Company.

Andrew Macbeth, of New Glasgow, N. S., was here for a few days this week.

Miss Roberta Robinson, daughter of Mrs. P. L. Robinson, who has been spending several months in St. John, has returned home.

Miss D. Winnifred Babbitt is spending some time with friends in St. John.

Miss Cambridge, R. N., who has been here during the past month at the home of the Misses Dickie, was in St. John for a few days this week.

C. H. Jones returned on Saturday from a short trip to St. John.

Rouben H. Hoban was here from Burton on Tuesday.

Visitors here from Upper Gagetown this week included Thos. P. Burpee, John P. Hoban, H. Ashley Estabrooks and A. Ludlow Hoban.

There has been very little communication between Gagetown and Upper Gagetown this week. Since the 4th of February the mail has not gone through from here to Upper Gagetown, and only during the past week has there been a road on the ice between the two places. The mail travels by land, and the road during the past weeks since the "big storm" has been considered impassable.

M. C. Little and family and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown have moved to Swan Creek.

On Wednesday afternoon the Woman's Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Casswell, and spent a busy afternoon in their work for missionary purposes. It was much regretted by everyone present that this would be the last meeting at the home of Mrs. Casswell, who has been an active and helpful member of the W. A. since its organization. Before the meeting broke up Mrs. Casswell and Miss Frances Casswell served afternoon tea.

Miss Anna Jackson, who has been laid up for a few days as the result of an accident, while coasting, is able to be out again.

Richard H. Gilbert met with a painful accident on Wednesday evening while driving up river. His horse, which is a spirited animal, suddenly bolted, overturning the sleigh, and smashing it up badly. Mr. Gilbert's right arm and hand were strained and bruised and it was thought at first that a bone had been fractured. Several days' rest will be needed, however, before they can be used again.

A mishap which might have had very serious results, occurred on Thursday afternoon, as the express was coming in. A team owned by Reid Brothers and driven by P. H. Giffland and Harry Allen was crossing the track at T. A. McAllister's with a heavy load of wood. The crossing is approached by a steep bit of road, which the last few days have made bare of snow. The team caught on the bare ground, and the big load of wood was directly across the track below the station. The station foreman, David M. Duke, held up the approaching train with a torpedo on the rail, and the express was slowed up while the men worked at top speed to get the obstruction off the track. Most of the load had to be thrown off before the sled could be induced to move.

The snow which caused so much trouble this winter is melting away at a lively rate under the hot sun of the past three or four days. Wednesday was the warmest day of the week being actually 30 in the sun on the front street at one time during the afternoon, and from 65 to 73 in the shade. The ice is also feeling the effect of the sun's rays. On Monday morning, ice was out in the channel at Scott's, eighteen to twenty-two inches thick; but yesterday and today have transformed much of this into slush and crossing from Megallowickes will probably not last much longer.

April 8th is the latest date at which a horse and sleigh have been able to cross the river at this point, and it is not expected that this record will be broken this year.

Duffy, Mrs. King, Mrs. Hreutz, Mrs. Archie Steeves, Mrs. Walter Slater, Thompson, Miss Emma Wallace, Miss Flo. Steeves, Mrs. Medell, Mollie King.

Miss Violet Taylor has returned to St. John.

Miss Maude Evans was hostess at a delightful party recently. The guests were: Helen, Lucia, Mary Steeves, Catherine Blight, Joy Slater, Esther West, Kathleen Duffy, Kathleen Livingston, Yvonne Langlois.

The monthly meeting of the Hillsboro United Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Steeves on March 18th. After the opening of the meeting the usual business was carried on. Among other things was a discussion on manual training. Roll call was answered by jokes. There were 22 members present and two visitors and two new members joined. The programme was as follows. Prize paper, systematic housekeeping, from the 1917 contest, read by Miss Simmonds; Duet, by Mrs. C. A. Peck and Mrs. C. J. Steeves, and an interesting reading by Mrs. Osman. Refreshments were served. Those entertaining were Mrs. Clifford Steeves, Mrs. Walter Slater, Mrs. Harry Philmore, Mrs. Quincy Steeves and Mrs. Archie Steeves.

MAN'S ESCAPE

St. Stephen, March 23.—Benny Waycott, a boy of about twelve years who came here from St. George a few years ago and has caused the police and citizens generally a lot of trouble and annoyance, was before the police magistrate last week and was sent up for trial, with a view to his commitment to the reform school, his devoted mother having finally given her consent to this course after having shielded him in former escapades. This time he was found guilty of stealing cash from a King street store during the temporary absence of the proprietor, and of having taken possession of a team left standing in front of a store, applying the whip and indulging in a lively ride through town that endangered life and resulted in the destruction of property. On a former occasion, the same enterprising Benny set fire to a load of hay that a farmer was driving down Water street, causing the destruction of the big load, the damage of the wagon and a very lively ride for the farmer. On that occasion, the lad escaped punishment by his mother taking him out of town for a season. For all his faults, there is a bit of likeableness about the boy, but he is not one who has the faculty of "improving on acquaintance" and there is a general feeling of relief because that he is to be translated for a season.

Frocks are now being brought direct from the hands of Paris designers by airplane to be worn in town the same evening. No wonder modern fashions are so airy.—Blighty, London.
