DURING the last two years, great improvements have been made in this Machine, and it now, more than ever before, challenges comparl on for light and quiet running, ease of managemant, aspacity for doing every kind of work required of a Sewing Machine, convenience of arrangement and elegance of style. We assure every lady, needing a machine, that she can better afford to buy a new Fiorence, even at the old high price, than to take any other Machine, for her daily work, as a gift. And in saving this, we inten 1 po disparagement to other machines; had the Florence never been invented, they would have been public blessings. It is only in comparison with the simple and effective Florence that they lose their value.
