

MONTREAL MINING EXCHANGE.

QUIETEST DAY YET—FEELING STEADY—THREE ISSUES ONLY DEALT IN.

The market is very quiet scarcely anything doing. Buyers are holding off in anticipation of extreme dullness lowering price a little further. Holders on the other hand are not pressing sales and unwilling to make further concessions as to values.

A small lot of Montreal Gold Fields brought 12, but 14 would be paid for the stock.

Golden Star, though 45 in the West was selling here at 44. Some $5000 in gold bricks were sent from the mine to Toronto last week. Though reactions may occur this stock is worth buying for a hold.

Big Three was quiet at 14½; we still suggest buying and keeping it. A rise of fair proportions will follow any demand so soon as present stock pressing on the market has been absorbed.

MORNING SALES.

Golden Star—1500, 44.
Montreal G. Fields—100, 12.
Big Three—500, 14½.
